

The Greenwich Journal

and Fort Edward Advertiser

VOL. 126—NO. 40 GREENWICH, NEW YORK, THURSDAY, JUNE 27, 1968 10c A COPY

132 Pints of Blood Collected At Recent Bloodmobile Visit

The visit of the American Red Cross bloodmobile to Greenwich last week was one of the most successful ever held. With people from both Greenwich and Schuylerville cooperating in giving blood, 132 pints were collected that afternoon. There were 152 people who volunteered as donors, 71 of them were from the Golden Fleeced mill, 50 of them from the Hudson Pulp and Paper company.

Those who volunteered as donors were: Margaret DeGregory, Francis Jennings, Orla Ball, Thomas Sirchia, Kathy Watson, Larry Priest, Marshall Crum, Phillip Morrison, Robert Williams—Raymond Brockway, George Graham, Arnold McVige, Theresa Toeman, Mary Weir, Alfred Vandugelder, Donald Bartolucci, Harold Sullivan, Lewis Martell, Ronald Morrison, Shirley Fife, Mark Poirier, John McCull, Burton Morris, Albert McLean, George Culbertson, Joan DeRagon, Ferris Withey, Thomas Marra, Lloyd Croff, Patrick White, William Harris, Thomas Eldredge, Earl Humiston, Edward O'Donnell, Robert Haraway, John Seabury, Florence Kirk, Rita Duane.

Eleven nurses were: Gail Davis, Betty Garrett, Linda Peltier, Colleen McGrouty, Kathy Duane, Gretchen Fellers. Staff aides were Mrs. Jamie Kerr, Mrs. Paul Wilson, Mrs. Frank Scully, Mrs. Willard Slay, Miss Ethel Powell, Miss Dawn Ringer.

Paper Will Be Printed Early Next Week

The Fourth of July is a week from today and it will be a holiday for almost everyone, including the newspaper staff. As Thursday is regular publication day, this means setting ahead the schedule of publication.

County Board Has Brief June Meeting

The Washington county board of supervisors held an abbreviated meeting last Thursday, completing all their business, most of which was routine, by noon.

Approval was given for the following purchases for the county highway department: A truck from Ford Garage Co. for $24-60; two six-man cab trucks from Carswell Trucks, Inc. for $45-95; overhead garage doors from Darrell Hall Inc. for $22-94. All were the low bidders.

Mrs. Roche Heads Board of SALS

Mrs. James E. Roche of Whitehall was elected president of the board of the Southern Adirondack Library system at its June meeting. Mrs. Roche has been a member of the system board since it was organized in 1958 and was responsible for writing the plan of operation for the system. She has previously held the board offices of secretary and vice president and is treasurer of the Whitehall Free Library board. Other officers elected were Mrs. Donald Hanks, Salem, vice president, and James E. Benton, Saratoga Springs, secretary.

Allen Only One Nominated for The School Board

A petition nominating Norman W. Allen for reelection as a member of the board of education of the Greenwich central school district was the only one filed with Clerk of the Board Jacqueline Wilkinson, and the final date for filing was Tuesday, so Mr. Allen's name will be the only one on the ballot at the annual meeting July 9.

Office Open For Central Registration

The central registration of voters at the county board of elections office at the county office building in Fort Edward resumed Monday. Registration was suspended prior to and immediately following the primary election, as required by law.

New Phone Books Being Distributed

A new edition of the Saratoga Springs telephone directory has just been published and 15,700 copies, about 950 more than last year, are being distributed to New York Telephone customers in this section.

County Board Has Brief June Meeting

The Washington county board of supervisors held an abbreviated meeting last Thursday, completing all their business, most of which was routine, by noon.

Mrs. Roche Heads Board of SALS

Mrs. James E. Roche of Whitehall was elected president of the board of the Southern Adirondack Library system at its June meeting. Mrs. Roche has been a member of the system board since it was organized in 1958 and was responsible for writing the plan of operation for the system. She has previously held the board offices of secretary and vice president and is treasurer of the Whitehall Free Library board. Other officers elected were Mrs. Donald Hanks, Salem, vice president, and James E. Benton, Saratoga Springs, secretary.

Allen Only One Nominated for The School Board

A petition nominating Norman W. Allen for reelection as a member of the board of education of the Greenwich central school district was the only one filed with Clerk of the Board Jacqueline Wilkinson, and the final date for filing was Tuesday, so Mr. Allen's name will be the only one on the ballot at the annual meeting July 9.

Office Open For Central Registration

The central registration of voters at the county board of elections office at the county office building in Fort Edward resumed Monday. Registration was suspended prior to and immediately following the primary election, as required by law.

New Phone Books Being Distributed

A new edition of the Saratoga Springs telephone directory has just been published and 15,700 copies, about 950 more than last year, are being distributed to New York Telephone customers in this section.

County Board Has Brief June Meeting

The Washington county board of supervisors held an abbreviated meeting last Thursday, completing all their business, most of which was routine, by noon.

Mrs. Roche Heads Board of SALS

Mrs. James E. Roche of Whitehall was elected president of the board of the Southern Adirondack Library system at its June meeting. Mrs. Roche has been a member of the system board since it was organized in 1958 and was responsible for writing the plan of operation for the system. She has previously held the board offices of secretary and vice president and is treasurer of the Whitehall Free Library board. Other officers elected were Mrs. Donald Hanks, Salem, vice president, and James E. Benton, Saratoga Springs, secretary.

Democrats of This County Not Doves

Washington county Democrats did not follow the trend in New York state at the primary election June 18. Rather, the majority voted for Eugene Nickerson for candidate for United States senator and for an unstructured slate of delegates and alternates to the Democratic national convention.

Posters Should Be Submitted By 10th of July

All students, elementary and high school, who submit a drawing or poster, publicizing the interfaith picnic, will be given a free extra ticket. Posters or drawings should be given to the students' priest or pastor by July 10. Methodist young people may leave their posters or drawings at the home of Mrs. Louis Patrick & Whipple place.

Summer Recreation Program Will Soon Be in Full Swing

The summer recreation program, sponsored by the town of Greenwich Youth committee, started this week and will be in full swing next week.

Two Teachers Will Take Part In State Meeting

Two agricultural teachers from Washington county will take part in a panel discussion today at the 58th annual professional improvement conference for teachers of agriculture at Syracuse.

Nine Inducted By Draft Board

Nine young men were inducted into the armed forces June 20 from the local draft board in Hudson Falls. They are: Allen J. Ellis, Argyle; Clarence H. King and Richard McGeoch, Cambridge; Peter L. Nadeau and Mitchell L. Humiston, Fort Edward; Gary E. Bain, North Granville; William Vandugelder, Whitehall; Joseph McMurry, Glens Falls; James A. Gough, Athens.

Largest Class in History Graduated Here Sunday

Commencement Exercises

The largest class in the history of the Greenwich central school was graduated Sunday afternoon, and the high school gymnasium was filled to overflowing for the commencement exercises. More than 1,000 people attended.

Four members of the class which numbered 77, received state regents diplomas with honor. They are George Allen, Betty Austin, Vicki Perkins and Kathleen Sherin.

Awards for Local Students

Eleven scholarship awards for members of the class of 1968 of the Greenwich central school were announced at commencement exercises Sunday afternoon.

Prizes Presented

Fifteen special prizes were presented at commencement by District Principal Edgar F. Snyder.

Grade Assembly

The 4th through 6th grades had an awards assembly June 20 with John Ross, sixth grade teacher, presiding.

County Board Has Brief June Meeting

The Washington county board of supervisors held an abbreviated meeting last Thursday, completing all their business, most of which was routine, by noon.

Mrs. Roche Heads Board of SALS

Mrs. James E. Roche of Whitehall was elected president of the board of the Southern Adirondack Library system at its June meeting. Mrs. Roche has been a member of the system board since it was organized in 1958 and was responsible for writing the plan of operation for the system. She has previously held the board offices of secretary and vice president and is treasurer of the Whitehall Free Library board. Other officers elected were Mrs. Donald Hanks, Salem, vice president, and James E. Benton, Saratoga Springs, secretary.

Awards for Local Students

Eleven scholarship awards for members of the class of 1968 of the Greenwich central school were announced at commencement exercises Sunday afternoon.

Cynthia Schaffer received a special $500 nursing scholarship awarded by the Mary McClellan hospital auxiliary. This is given annually to a student in the section served by the auxiliary who plans to study nursing. This is the second time a Greenwich high school graduate has received this award. Lou Ann Ketchum received a similar scholarship from the auxiliary in 1960, the first year the award was given.

Prizes Presented

Fifteen special prizes were presented at commencement by District Principal Edgar F. Snyder.

Grade Assembly

The 4th through 6th grades had an awards assembly June 20 with John Ross, sixth grade teacher, presiding.

County Board Has Brief June Meeting

The Washington county board of supervisors held an abbreviated meeting last Thursday, completing all their business, most of which was routine, by noon.

Mrs. Roche Heads Board of SALS

Mrs. James E. Roche of Whitehall was elected president of the board of the Southern Adirondack Library system at its June meeting. Mrs. Roche has been a member of the system board since it was organized in 1958 and was responsible for writing the plan of operation for the system. She has previously held the board offices of secretary and vice president and is treasurer of the Whitehall Free Library board. Other officers elected were Mrs. Donald Hanks, Salem, vice president, and James E. Benton, Saratoga Springs, secretary.

Nine Inducted By Draft Board

Nine young men were inducted into the armed forces June 20 from the local draft board in Hudson Falls. They are: Allen J. Ellis, Argyle; Clarence H. King and Richard McGeoch, Cambridge; Peter L. Nadeau and Mitchell L. Humiston, Fort Edward; Gary E. Bain, North Granville; William Vandugelder, Whitehall; Joseph McMurry, Glens Falls; James A. Gough, Athens.

Two Teachers Will Take Part In State Meeting

Two agricultural teachers from Washington county will take part in a panel discussion today at the 58th annual professional improvement conference for teachers of agriculture at Syracuse.