Seasons Greetings Everybody. Snow is gradually piling up to the joy of all those ski enthusiasts and snowmobile fans. Recently I had my first ride on one of these contraptions and sure got around over the snow and ice but they are about as comfortable as a farm tractor or one of those old fashion skip-jacks. My biggest surprise was the speed. They really can get up and go. Easier and safer than skiing but I'd hate to have one break down more than a short walk from the road.

Skip-jacks, the modern breed, are a far cry from the old barrel stave and board seat of our fearless youth. At Killington I saw about a dozen of the new breed. All fancy manufactured with a short ski runner, metal braces and a coat of your favorite color enamel. These jacks sped along with the same abandon as of yore and there were just as many spills but they are more sturdy. Smooth ski slopes are the ideal terrain and you can own one for fifty bucks and up and you can take your chances with this pleasure.

Last Monday my old friend, the white Arctic owl turned up over at the swamp near the Stump church. This is the third year he has put in an appearance. This big owl was sitting atop a post and I thought it was a big piece of snow but it suddenly dropped off and glided across a field into the swamp.

Ernie Weeks, thirteen years old, came up with the club championship at the Rickochetes Junior Rifle club shoot.

off. Ernie is a first year shooter and shoots in the high forties out of a possible fifty. Weeks' total score was 183 shooting in the sub-junior class from the prone position. Alan Lant was awarded reserve championship shooting in the over-thirteen Junior class. He had a total score of 174 shooting from four positions: Prone, sitting, kneeling and standing. Others who shot good scores were Doug McQuade, Otto Wever, and Harold Bell. This club is sponsored by the local VFW and the Greenwich Fish and Game club. Club leader is Stony Jackson, instructors are Art Erbe, Alan Lant and Otto Wever. Shooting will resume with warm weather next March and April.

That new gun law to suppress shipping guns reads like this in part: "For sales to Unlicensed purchasers, the following requirements apply: Ammunition: Age, 18 for rifle or shotgun ammunition, 21 for ammunition used only in handguns. Residency: there are no residency requirements, you may sell ammunition over-the-counter to residents or non-residents. 3) Qualifications: Dealer must not sell or ship if he has reasonable cause to believe purchaser is—a fugitive from justice or under indictment for or has been convicted of a felony—is a narcotic addict—unlawful user of marijuana or any depressant, stimulant or narcotic drug, an adjudged mental incompetent or has been committed to any mental institution." Boy what a load to put on a dealer. Here come the Judge.

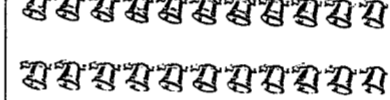

The rest of the law is written in the same language. Too much to give here. You should get a copy and see this missive full of loop holes. Very interesting. Want to read it? I've got a copy.

Merry Christmas to all you shooters, hunters, fishermen and nature lovers.

CHEERS We take this day to express fondest wishes, and a cheerful "Thank you."
