Christmas carolers

During the week of December 15, the students of Salem central school caroled downtown in the business section of Salem. Each day one group of grades performed by singing Christmas carols for approximately a 60-minute concert. Every child from kindergarten through the sixth grade had the opportunity to make a contribution to this group endeavor.

On returning to school, the children provided Christmas music in the courtyard of the high school building, singing around the Christmas tree which had been decorated by the various classes. The true spirit of Christmas was displayed by these youngsters with their lovely voices.

Children's committee donations

Contributions for the Washington County Children's Committee are being received by chairman of the drive, Mrs. Joan Green. Mrs. Green is very appreciative of the generosity of the friends of "our children."
