ITEMS OF INTEREST BY THE FALLS CORRESPONDENTS

Weight of Interesting—The famous visit of Grant and O'Connell to Ogdensburg is a delightful season on the river. Ogdensburg is a city of visitors.

Proposed Mill Dam, July 21.—(Special.) The facilities for laying down the river to Ogdensburg by water have never been so well managed as the convenience of the traveling public in this season, and the credit to Mr. W. Butterfield, resident and J. F. Wilson, the enterprising business manager of the "Alexandria Bay" company, Mr. Deane, formerly known as the "Black Dog" is an expert in the way of making a dam. The dam is to be built on the river between Ogdensburg and Alexandria Bay, and will be a great benefit to the people of the river.

They View, an island recently purchased and fitted up by J. Y. Chapin of Ogdensburg is the first stop made, Cedar Island, coming to be quite noted resort for Ogdensburg, has a large supply store, a good stable and several cottages. It is just across from Ogdensburg Bay, where they go for the United States mail, Mr. Apperson, of the firm of Apperson & Co., publishers, New York, managing the business at this place. The island is a beautiful spot, and is a great resort for the people of the river.

Summer Tunes have for many years at Ogdensburg, is a place of interest just now, being the summer home of the Ogdensburg Lyceum, a place of the highest importance. Ogdensburg Lyceum is a man of business, and is a great resort for the people of the river.

County Judge Kellogg of St. Lawrence county is a jovial fellow and many were the jokes at his expense as we steamed down the river to Ogdensburg. Judge Kellogg's summer home is a scene of merriment, and is a great resort for the people of the river.
