ABOUT BEHRING SEA.

THE PRESS AND THE BEARINGS SALISBURY LETTERS.

A Varied Assortment of Expressions—A. J. Jones Yells From Canada—What the London Papers Say—Mr. Blaine is Worried Over the Matter.

New York, July 25.—A Washington dispatch to the Herald says the publication of the Behring Sea correspondence has removed the one cause of irritation that has vexed two great countries for several years. That is, it is now believed that the controversy is at an end, and that the British government will never again, it is said, need to go to war to avenge the loss of a seal. The fact is established, and the grievance is removed. The publication of the correspondence has removed the one cause of irritation that has vexed two great countries for several years. That is, it is now believed that the controversy is at an end, and that the British government will never again, it is said, need to go to war to avenge the loss of a seal. The fact is established, and the grievance is removed.

ALONG THE LAKE.

Latest Gossip About Vessels and Freight.

Buffalo Courier to-day: There was no change in coal freight yesterday. Cleveland, 24: One freight was quoted at the Ashland rate, established at $1.15; one vessel, name not given, was chartered at that figure yesterday. The drop in the Ashland rate was the cause of increased offerings of tonnage for Lake Michigan. Coal rates were unchanged.

To Stop Lotteries.

Washington, July 25.—The House post office committee today approved a bill to prohibit the sale of lottery tickets and to order it to be reported to the House. The committee also passed a bill to prohibit the sale of lottery tickets and to order it to be reported to the House.
