

ODD-FELLOWS IN CHICAGO.

THE GREAT BIENNIAL CONVENTION.

Of the Patriarchal Militant... Competition for Valuable Prizes... 5,000 People Witness the Demonstration... CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—The expected in connection with the great triennial convention of the Patriarchal Militant, I. O. O. F., were continued yesterday. A spirit of rivalry has developed among the lodges which are participating in the competition for the various prizes offered. The New York contingent has been in a peak of trouble ever since the convention was first thought of. The State was to have sent a large delegation, but the failure of the railroads to furnish accommodations in the matter of rates, defeated the project. Canton Buffalo, one of the crack organizations of the order, had selected for the trip the big party of 100, but was obliged to withdraw on account of not being able to get men enough here at the railroad rates. The Ontario route is being considered, but the latter being held July 31st, it was either never received or missed at headquarters and Buffalo now finds itself cramped for space, but cannot meet the entry requirements as to the number of men. It asks that enough New York members be admitted to its ranks to supply the number needed, but it is doubtful if this will be allowed.

THE STREET RAILWAY.

A Better Service to be Given the Public at Once. Mr. F. J. Callahan, in the interest of Syracuse parties, is busy to-day re-organizing the street railway. He has been doing so for some time, and a new organization and nothing has been determined as to extension. One of the first things that will be necessary, Mr. Callahan thinks, is the removal of the trolley from the street, then it does at present. He also proposes to increase the service of the road at once and will make arrangements to run cars so as to accommodate persons employed in the Oswego Manufacturing Company's plant. Sunday, if the day is pleasant, a line of buses will be put on at the Western terminus of the road, to convey persons who desire to visit resorts on the Onondaga.
