NEW YORK

Great Bargains in Hats and Caps at

Harviston's Hat Store

Geneva, New York

FEBRUARY 1, 1860

HOME MATTERS.

There are about a hundred people in the world, and ten of them never eat.

We are to move to the east tomorrow, and we shall leave a lot of good people behind us.

The weather is very cold, and we shall have to stay in bed until the sun comes up.

The Post Will Case.—Among the de¬

FEBRUARY 7, 1860

We have been told that the temperature will be below zero tonight, and we shall have to stay in bed until the sun comes up.

The weather is very cold, and we shall have to stay in bed until the sun comes up.

The Post Will Case.—Among the de¬

FEBRUARY 14, 1860

We have been told that the temperature will be below zero tonight, and we shall have to stay in bed until the sun comes up.

The weather is very cold, and we shall have to stay in bed until the sun comes up.

The Post Will Case.—Among the de¬

FEBRUARY 21, 1860

We have been told that the temperature will be below zero tonight, and we shall have to stay in bed until the sun comes up.

The weather is very cold, and we shall have to stay in bed until the sun comes up.