Brewster for more than fifty years, a well known resident of the late Thomas Hughes, of Main Avenue. Mrs. Hughes came to Brewster at Port Jervis, N.Y. In 1901 Mr.
Hughes entered into business. He was a prominent member of the town and Mrs. Hughes came to Brewster where they established their home and devoted their energies to the benefit of a family of twelve children and to extending hospiteousness. The celebration of this fiftieth wedding anniversary will be attended by many friends.

Surviving are twelve children, seven grandchildren, Mrs. Hugh Krowne, Bethel, Conn., Mrs.
Hughes, Mrs. James Lowry, Mrs. John O’Leary, Katonia, Mrs. Frederic Goodwin, Mrs. Charles DeWitt Bailey, New York, Mrs. William Potter, Poughkeepsie; two brothers, Bernard J., and Joseph C. eighteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. Mrs. Hughes was predeceased by her husband in 1955.

MRS. DURKIN FETED
A tea given to Mrs. Albert Durkin by her daughter, Mrs. David Brunel was hosted at a stork store in honor of her 85th birthday on Dec. 27 at her home on King’s Highway. Gifts were presented in a beautifully decorated pink and blue batik and were admired by the guests before receptions served by the hostesses.

Guests included Mrs. Raymond textilista, Mrs. Alexander Daligio, Mrs. Robert Sinclair, Mrs. Robert Donley, Mrs. Francis Palmer, Mrs. Raymond Manning, Mrs. Robert Bacon, Mrs. Andrew Dubois, Sr., Mrs.
Mrs. Louis Puglisi, Mrs. George Camomal, Mrs. George Clark. Miss D. Mickey, Mrs. Donal, Mrs. William Collor, Miss Elise Durkin, Mrs. Regnur Durkin and Mrs. King and Mrs. Brun.

Mrs. Durkin was a thirty-one year resident of Brewster. She is a member of the Presbyterian Church and the Ladies’ Aid Society.

Brewster Ladies will raise tidings for the big Firemen’s Ball, coming Feb.
18, giving ample time for assembly for a costume for this colorful event, not to mention making the beauty dates. It is essential to convey the belles who give up the their finery expenses, as the leading social event of the year.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tuttle entertained on Saturday night at the home of Andrew Durkin, Jr., at King’s Highway on the occasion of their fortieth anniversary. Mr. Tuttle is a noted race horse breeder.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Teale, of Glen Trail, will be away for a trip to a California early February

Mrs. J. Valnice of Danbury, was an overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs.
A. C. Penny on Monday.

Mrs. Julia Judson, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is now recuperating at her home. Miss Grace Tower has been suffering from a severe cold, but is now much improved.

Edward Tuttle, who was confinned to his bed with a struggle a week for a fever on the job at Brat-Shannan Motor Co.

Donald Outhouse, of Croton
Falls, went by plane to Florida
on Monday. Mrs. Outhouse will motor down to join her husband later in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones, of Waterbury, Conn., spent Sun-today at Mr. Jones’ home in Brewster.

The Ladies’ Aid Society of the First Baptist Church will hold a Food Sale, January 20th, at the hosted by Mrs. Kenneth Griffin, North Brewster.

Jan. 18 is the date of the Dorset-dodge to be given by the women’s Association of Presbyterian Church in Dorset Memorial Church at 1 p.m. The public is invited to be present.

Mrs. John Puglisi, Mrs. Lily Wheeler
and Mrs. Dalghisch are in charge.

Mrs. H. M. Reynolds ententained the Wednesday evening club at her home on Jan. 11.

Deborah was served to sixteen members and guests and prize winners were Mrs. Alex Venderbrough, Mrs. H. H. Wells, Mrs. T. F. Tipton and Mrs. J. M. Loven.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Wells entertained on Saturday evening at their home, 130 Hope Street, Mrs.
and Mrs. Frank Foster and Dewitt Griffin were guests at the same dinner.

Mrs. Jessie Walther, who visited from her home in Port Jefferson, was entertained by the Ladies’ Aid Society of the First Baptist Church.

Chaplain Chester, retiring justice of the Town Board, enteredtained the members of the Board of Highways.

Mrs. Joseph L. Penrose, of Winston-Salem, N.C., was entertained by the members of the Board of Trustees.

Mr. and Mrs. Welcome B. Rich tained the meeting in honor of Mrs.
Dorothy M. Rich and Mrs. Sarah M.
Rich for their fiftieth anniversary in 1979. They were celebrated at Hollywood Cafe on Feb.
22. A huge outdoor grill.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lancto, constantly on the Board of the Brewster Fire Department.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tuttle attended the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. The couple had attended the wedding of their daughter, Mrs. Michael M. Tuttle.

Mrs. A. C. Penny on Monday.

Mrs. Julia Judson, who has been quite ill with pneumonia, is
now recuperating at her home. Miss Grace Tower has been suffering from a severe cold, but
is now much improved.

Edward Tuttle, who was
confinned to his bed with a struggle a week for a fever on the
job at Brat-Shannan Motor Co.

Donald Outhouse, of Croton
Falls, went by plane to Florida
on Monday. Mrs. Outhouse
will motor down to join her husband
later in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jones,
of Waterbury, Conn., spent Sun-today at Mr. Jones’ home in Brewster.

The Ladies’ Aid Society of the
First Baptist Church will hold
a Food Sale, January 20th, at the
hosted by Mrs. Kenneth Griffin,
North Brewster.

Jan. 18 is the date of the Dorset-dodge to be given by the
women’s Association of Presbyterian Church in Dorset Memorial Church at 1 p.m. The public is invited to be present.

Mrs. John Puglisi, Mrs. Lily Wheeler
and Mrs. Dalghisch are in charge.

Mrs. H. M. Reynolds enten-
tained the Wednesday evening club
at her home on Jan. 11.

Deborah was served to sixteen
members and guests and prize
winners were Mrs. Alex Vender-
brough, Mrs. H. H. Wells, Mrs. T. F. Tipton and
Mrs. J. M. Loven.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Wells
entertained on Saturday evening at their home, 130 Hope Street, Mrs.
and Mrs. Frank Foster and Dewitt Griffin were guests at the same dinner.