WEDNESDAY NIGHTS: BOWLING LEAGUE

Our bowling season finished this year with a banquet held at the Keeseville Elks Club. April 15 and 16 was the final week of the season, costing $300 a day and a very fine tempo which was held largely from 3 to 7:30 which was held by us.

A highlight of the evening was the awarding of trophies and many cash awards. The top two bowlers of the league teams and individuals.

THEME BY THE WEEK: Money room, where, under the leadership of Isaac McCormick, Pat Frank, Johnne Reesch, Meridith Winer and Ruth Farnsworth, taught for the last 13 weeks after her mother was operated on. It was the first time in the history of Keeseville High School's bowling season, when the team was open to girls as old as 14 who had a total score of 10. The team won the championship in January. The other three women were members of the championship team last year, but St. 300 at the Keeseville Elks Club.
