

Lake George Mirror.

Entered at the Postoffice at Glens Falls, N. Y., as second-class matter.

W. H. TIPPETTS, Editor and Publisher.

"THE QUEEN OF AMERICAN LAKES."

$1 for the Season; 10c. a Copy.

VOL. II.

ASSEMBLY POINT, LAKE GEORGE, JUNE 20, 1891.

NO. 3.

LAKE GEORGE MIRROR.

DEVOTED TO THE INTERESTS OF THE L. G. A.,
LAKE GEORGE AND THE ADIRONDACKS.

Entered at the postoffice at Glens Falls, N. Y., as second-class matter.

W. H. TIPPETTS Editor and Publisher.

PUBLISHED WEEKLY—During June, July, August and September. Business and publication office, No. 6 Union Street, Glens Falls, N. Y.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE.—Mailed to any subscriber in the United States free of charge, invariably in advance. No deviation from this rule.

ADVERTISING RATES.—Season, one inch, $3.00. Special rates for larger space furnished upon application.

Local notices, 20 cents a line, single insertion. Reading notices, season, 50 cents a line.

THE LAKE GEORGE MIRROR is on file and for sale at the American Exchange in Europe; at the Artists' Club, Munich; Brantano's, New York, Washington, Chicago, Paris; New York Herald Reading Room, Paris, and 100 European hotels; at the reading rooms of Anglo-American Bank, Europe; will be found on ocean steamers leaving New York City; at the New York clubs; all hotels on Lake George; in the Adirondacks and in Saratoga.

Also at the following summer resorts: Thousand Islands, St. Lawrence River, the White Mountains, Portland and beyond, Old Orchard, Mt. Desert, Hampton and Rye Beaches, York Beach, Nahant, Swampscott, Nantasket, Martha's Vineyard, Nantucket and Berkshires Hills, Narragansett Bay, Newport, Block Island, along the Sound, the Connecticut valley, the Catskills, the Hudson River, around New York, Coney Island, Rockaway, and Far Rockaway, Niagara Falls, the Jersey Coast, Long Branch, Asbury Park, Ocean Grove, Barnegat Bay, Atlantic City, Cape May, White Sulphur Springs, Va., Hot Springs, Ark., Lake Minnetonka, Minn., Richfield Springs, Sharon Springs and others.

To our patrons we extend an invitation to send us regularly during the season, news of general interest from their hotels. We desire each of those whose patronage we receive to send us any items of interest to the general public which they might wish published in our columns.

Postmaster C. S. Wood, Caldwell, Postmaster Fred W. Allen, Bolton-on-Lake George, and Lewis Burgess, Hague-on-Lake George, are authorized to receive subscriptions for the Lake George Mirror.

Cottagers will confer a favor if they will send the Mirror any items of news in their possession.

A Hint of To-day.

A bit a bit!
The line grows tight;
I feel a sudden thrill of bliss;
A mighty wish
At least as long as this:

Alas! alas!
It comes to pass
(As oft it has with you, I wis)
I pull him out;
He is a trout
As long, perhaps, as this:

—Detroit Free Press.

ALONG THE SHORE.

Subscriptions to the Lake George Mirror including back numbers, $1 for season.

The Krassow hotel, Fourteen-Mile island, will be conducted this season by H. H. Van Arman, formerly of the Lake View house, Ausable Chasm.

—Mr. Ezra Benedict and his daughter, Miss Ida Benedict, of Brooklyn, are occupying their attractive summer home, Ganouskie cottage, north of the Bolton house. C. Edward Benedict will leave the city Friday of each week to spend Sunday with them.

—Linemen are at work repairing the telegraph wires between Glens Falls and Pearl Point. Pearl Point and the East Lake George hotels will soon be in communication with the outside world.

—W. W. D. Jeffers and family have gone to their cottage at Lake George to spend the summer.—Ticonderoga Sentinel.

—R. J. Brown, of the Lake View house, Bolton-on-Lake George, entertained a select party last week. Here they are: Ex-Judge Whitman, Counsellors King, Armstrong, Jenkins, Bevins, Cunningham, Supervisors' Clerk Potter, Stenographer Law and John B. Marzluff. The party went down the lake on a small steam yacht.

—Galloway O. Morris, of New York city, has taken possession of his cottage on the Bolton road for the summer.

—A. Y. Birdsall, of Poughkeepsie, the new manager of the Glen Lake house, is at the hotel. He has made all the preparations for the opening of this popular resort to-day.

—Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Price, of New York city, visited their lovely summer home on the lake last week.

—Harry Watrous, of New York, inspected his new Hague cottage this week.

—E. E. Hunter and O. W. Burwell, of Schroon Lake, have purchased the Windsor hotel at that place. The purchase was made of William Edgar Bird, of New York city. Many new improvements will be made.

—Mrs. J. W. Hunting, of Glens Falls, and her two children, will spend the summer at the Kattakill house. Mrs. Hunting will leave Glens Falls, July 3.

—William T. Wells, who is now occupying his pretty cottage on the grounds of the Lake George Assembly, is the inventor of rustless iron, and president of the Rustless Iron company of New York city. Mr. Wells is a niece of Senator Stanford. Mr. Wells has his own steamer and makes frequent trips through the lake.

—The editor of the Mirror wishes several copies of No. 1, of last year. Anyone having copies of No. 1, will confer a favor by sending them to this office.

—The Baptist church, Bolton, has secured the service of a young man who is a student at one of the Baptist universities. He comes very highly recommended.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. Hess, of Fond du Lac, will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Colvin a few days during August, at Pine Tree cottage, Ripley's Point.

—The "Oyric," E. Burgess Warren's new steam yacht arrived at the Sagamore this week. The lines of the new craft are very beautiful. Her finishing is complete. The boat will be a welcome addition to our growing lake fleet.

—Mrs. G. Federlein and family, of New York, city, arrived at their cottage home, at Hill View, June 18, where they have taken up their residence for the summer. Mrs. Federlein has recently purchased a grand piano and will dispose of the upright piano owned by her at private sale.

—The new steam yacht owned by W. B. Bement, of the Sagamore, is in the hands of Machinist John Halls at the head of the lake. The Rover will be put in good order for the summer and will hereafter be found ready to receive guests at the Sagamore pier.

—G. W. VanVranken, of the Schenectady Union, and J. B. Alexander, brother of Robert Alexander, of the Mail and Express, New York city, are occupying Buena Vista cottage, near the Lake View house, on the shores of Bolton bay. The cottage is situated on one of the most picturesque sites on the lake.

—Prof. James DeWitt and James DeWitt, Jr., Sagamore musicians, will arrive this week.

—H. L. Crandall, the Glens Falls florist, visited the Sagamore grounds this week and completed the decoration of General Robert Lenox Banks' cottage on the lake shore. Mr. Crandall also visited Villa Solitude, owned by Mrs. L. H. Meyer, Bolton-on-Lake George, and stocked several flower beds with choice flowering plants.

—O. D. Seavey, manager of the Fort William Henry, returned from New York city Tuesday. Mr. Seavey, chef and eight assistants and servants arrived on the same train. The number of servants employed in this great summer hotel this year is 100.

—E. A. Terry, clerk of the Mohican house, Bolton, arrived this week. This is Mr. Terry's eighth season as clerk at this house.

—The family of General Robert Lenox Banks it is expected will arrive at the Sagamore to-day.

—Among the guests now stopping at the Huettis house, Saratoga, is General James Oakes of the United States army. He is accompanied by Mrs. Oakes and Miss A. De B. Oakes. They will remain in Saratoga during the summer season where Mr. Oakes has been a regular visitor for years.

—The judges of the court of appeals Saturday accepted the invitation of Judge Joseph Potter, and went to an excursion through Lake George and to Whitehall, where they stopped for lunch at his Skene mountain side mansion.

—H. R. Chambers has been appointed one of the assessors of the town of Caldwell, Warren county, to succeed Alphonse Young.

—It is reported that Senor Mendonca has telegraphed from the telegraph office at Bode's dispatches in the month to the sum of $150.00 in tariff.

—Guests at the Sagamore are: H. S. Livingston and wife, Marion Schurz, daughter of Carl Schurz, Dr. J. Rudish and wife, child and maid, Miss Armitage A. Niess, Dr. A. Jacobie, New York, J. R. Mix and wife and three children, Orange, N. J.; Wm. B. Bement, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Johnson at Warren's cottage; F. D. Bates and wife, Boston; Frank P. Burnback and wife, Kansas City, Mo.