WHO WILL CARE?

Who will care
When we lay beneath the daises,
Underneath the churchyard mould,
And the long grass o'er our faces
Love its fingers damp and cold;
When we sleep from care and sorrow,
And the ills of earthly life—
Sleep, to know no sad to-morrow,
With its bitterness and strife—
Who will care?

Who will care?
Who will come to weep above us,
Lying, oh! so white and still,
Underneath the skies of summer,
Where all nature's colors thrill,
To a new life glad and tender,
Full of beauty, rich and sweet,
All the world is clad in splendor
That the years shall o'er repeat—
Who will care?

Who will care?
Who will think of white hands lying
On a still and silent breast,
Never more to know of sighing,
Evermore to know of rest?
Who will care? No one can tell us,
Until first we rest in peace below,
Will it matter if they miss us,
Or they miss us not at all?
Not at all!

Very Smart Cattle.

A writer in the Boston Advertiser gives the following specimen of veritable yarns by an Illinois farmer:

"When I first came here in 1840, those oxen were steers. Stock was rather short and I worked the critters in early. Well, one day old Tennessee Smith, down by the Lillypache, had cut a red elm and it got lodged in the Sloo, and none of them dared venture out to cut it clear. So they hitched on all the oxen they had and tried to drag it out on the bluff. But with six yoke they couldn't make it let go. Then some one said, send for Spencers steers. When Mr. Smith's boy came I told him he he could have the steers, Charley, but no one else drives them but me. So I yoked up and went down. When I got there I said, gentlemen, take away your oxen, and they did. Then I told them to cut a welt all around the log, so my chain would lie inside of it, just even with the bark. Then I cut a slit from this welt to the butt of the log, so my chain wouldn't catch in the hazel brush. Then I put the chain around and hitched on, picked up the whip and gave the critters a cheerful start with the lash. They sprung to it and jerked the log two feet and then it stuck fast. Then I yelled and put on the string and those two little fellows leaned to their work, and just shivered a little and then they went like a shot for a rod or two, and with a long red stick behind 'em, and everybody shouted and then shut up their fly traps and said not a word. For gentlemen, would you believe me those two bucks had drawn the heart right out of the log!"

"Yes sir," repeated Spencer as he wiped his forehead with a bandanna. "Yes sir; and if that Yankee don't believe it, I can show him the same log to-day at Jackson. The road commissioners took it for a town pump, it was all bored out for use."

"I started one day with my team of grays and a load of corn to drive to Jackson, nine miles, to market. Brought back twelve bags of meal and a barrel of flour. Well, just as I got out of the town, and had about eight miles of prairie 'twixt me and Hannah I heard a rattling noise behind me, and when I looked around there was a bouncing hail storm right upon me. I yelled at the grays and flung my chaw of tobacco at Billy, for he was the laziest, and we swung along at what you Yankees call a good Hiram Woodruff pace. I never quit yelling, and they never stopped running till we struck Felderkin's Corner, right where you blazed that big bur oak this morning. Then I found the storm was over, and when I looked to see if the load was safe there was a bushel and a half of hail stones in the hind end of the wagon, but not one of 'em on my sacks or on me. Gentlemen I had raced on the edge of that hail storm, all the eight miles home. Now it's my opinion you couldn't do that little trick to-day with any two horses in Illinois, not if you soak their tails in turpentine the night before and touch a match to 'em just as you start. Or how of this?"

Odd Fancies.

—An ill bread man—a sick baker.

—The oldest cup on record—hic-cup.

—A singular sight—to see a garden walk.

—Query—is the wheel of time ever tired.

—Wanted—a settlement of the dews of eve.

—The best illustrated paper out—a bank note.

—Sloight of hand—declining a matrimonial offer.

—Is a man who has been twice a porter a reporter.

—Not butter, but her: the milk-maid not made of milk.

—Cheap generosity—giving a man a piece of your mind.

—When is a man thinner than a shingle? When he is a shaving.

—A girl that has lost her last beau may as well hang up her fiddle.

—How does a butcher express his affection? By sending a tender line.

—No wonder grave-yards yawn, when there are so many sleepers there.

—It is said that some of the Maine girls are "fearfully and wonderfully maid."

—A country newspaper advertises: "Wanted, a well-bred boy to make a devil of."

—No wonder that the squirrel is accused of chattering: he is certainly a great tail-bearer.

—"Sir, you have broken your promise." "Oh, never mind; I can make another just as good."

—"Raising the wind," is now denominated, more classicly, "exsuscitating the financial Aeolus."

—What do people involuntarily exclaim when they come in sight of the Halls of Congress Capital!

—Flowery. The American people ride so much in the cars that they may justly be styled the car-nation.

—Hope's end is often the rope's end. If a career of crime does not come to a halt, it is likely to come to a halter.

—Why is a fashionable young lady's brains like a speckled trout? Because they are found under a waterfall.

—Rev. Bro. Chapin says that a man living in the activities of the nineteenth century is a condensed Methusaleh.

—It is true that ladies who adopt the Grecian Bend costume fly into a passion? Now because they get their backs up. If it is first curbed, then thrashed and finally becomes the flower of the family.

DO GOOD: Make Money. No more "Kerosene Horrors." GLASS LAMPS BREAK & EXPLODE, CAUSING FIRE AND DEATH.

CANVASSERS WANTED. Good Canvassers can make money and do good selling the PERKINS & HOUSE PATENT Non-Explosive Kerosene Lamp. IT CAN NOT BE EXPLODED By anything Short of Nitro Glycirene Or Gunpowder.

We claim for this remarkable Lamp 1st. Absolute Safety under all Circumstances. 2d. It gives twice as much light from same sized wick. 3d. It uses 25 per cent. less oil. 4th. It is ornamental and durable—lasts a lifetime. 5th. It gives no odor in burning—turned never so low. 6th. The steadiness of flame is especially wonderful. 7th. It is a successful rival of gas at a trifling expense.

OPINIONS IN BRIEF OF EMINENT MEN.

Prof. W. S. Clark, President of Mass. Agri. College says: "It is non-explosive. The light is better than is produced by any other lamp. I believe it is true economy in view of the safety, the quality and quantity of light, and the durability of this lamp, to throw away all other kinds and use this only."

C. T. Jackson, M. D., of Boston, State Assayer, Says: "I find it free from all danger of explosion, when exposed to the severest proofs. Its general introduction, in place of the unsafe glass lamps, will save much property from fire and prevent those fearful explosions, which have so often proved fatal to life.

The New York Tribune says: "No other is perfectly safe. All the points of danger have been carefully guarded that disaster is simply an impossibility.

The New York Independent says: Nothing more need be said to bring this lamp at once into public confidence and Universal use.

BANKS & CONGDON, Offer for sale the bonds and mortgages of the Chicago, Danville and Vincennes Railroad Company, principal and interest payable in gold in the City of New York. Also, a limited amount of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Chicago, Danville and Vincennes Railroad Company, for HOLIDAY PRESENTS. dec11dtf

THE FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS OF THE Chicago, Danville, and VINCENNES RAILROAD.

Total amount to be issued,	$2 500 000
Capital stock paid in,	2 100 000
Estimated Cost of Road,	1 500 000
Estimated Earnings per annum,	2 639 306
Net Earnings per annum,	819 768
Interest on the Loan per annum,	175 000
Amount of Bonds per mile of Road,	16 000
Amount of interest per mile,	3 280
Amount of Net Earnings per mile,	6 284

The Bonds follow the completion of the Road, have the Union Trust Company of N. Y. as their Official Register and Transfer Agent—and are sold at present at 90 and accrued interest.

They bear examination and comparison, better, it is believed, than any other now before the public, in the tried and unchangeable elements Safety, Security, and Profit.

They bear good interest—Seven per cent. Gold, for forty years—and are secured by a Sinking Fund, and First Mortgage upon the road, its outfit, and not to come, the Franchises, and all present and future acquired property of the Company.

They depend upon no war or half-settled territory for business to pay their interest, but upon an old well settled, and productive country—assuming that a railroad built through the heart of such a region offers better security for both interest and principal than a road to be built through the most highly excited wilderness or entirely settled territory.

This Railroad possesses special advantages, in running into and out of the City of Chicago, an important Railroad and Commercial Center; in running through a line of villages and old farming settlements in the richest portion of the State of Illinois; in running near to deposits of Iron Ore of great extent and value, and over broad fields of the best coal in the State—which mining interests are its monopoly. And besides the local and other business thus assured, there will be attracted to this road the considerable traffic already springing up "From the Lakes to the Gulf" as with its Southern Connections it forms a Trunk Line 45 miles shorter than any other route from Chicago to Nashville.

These Bonds are therefore based upon a Reality and a Business that a few years must inevitably double—and competent judges say treble—in value.

Government is selling while the price is high pay well, & put into these Bonds, and Trust or Estate Funds can be put into NOTHING BETTER.

Pamphlets, with Maps, &c., on hand for distribution.

Bonds may be had directly of us, or of our Agent in Watertown, THE MERCHANTS' BANK.

Everything in the line of FRESH MEAT that can be found at the "Union Meat Market." They have secured the services of Mr. E. H. PERKINS, whose practical experience in the Grocery business is not surpassed.

Thankful for the liberal patronage heretofore accorded to them by their old customers, they would respectfully solicit a continuance of the same, as all others who may favor them with a call. CROSS & WILSON, Proprietors, Corner of High and Factory Streets. Watertown, June 28, 1869. jy28-3mos-w

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deep upon the confidence of mankind, as this truly effective remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the throat and lungs, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometimes subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where the disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the public relieved to some degree by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and Public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known, that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or do more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

Ayer's Ague Cure, For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond computation, and well-nigh without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the unknowledgments we receive of the radical cure effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, after visiting the, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy action.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold by all druggists throughout the world. [illegible] Smith, Theos. A. Tripp, [illegible] Jan10dbat-tiwem
