On the Road, April 5th. We leave Watertown in one of Kemp & Co's stuges, bound for Lowellville.

At Copenhagen we learn that a house situated about one mile and a half from the village, toward Watertown, was burned last night.

The Christian people of Copenhagen are taking measures to supply the needs of this now utterly destitute family, which is a guarantee that they will not suffer.

Mr. Chickering, who was engaged in gathering contributions for this family, informed us, upon application, that all gave with scarcely an exception.

As we journey in the afternoon from Copenhagen to Lowellville, we notice the appearance of a smoky haze.

Perhaps our factories are rendered more acute from the fact that at this season of the year, certain privileged individuals receive invitations to eat warm sugar, which is accomplished in a way to render it pleasant to romantic people.

On the opposite side of the street we notice the name of Dr. Charles W. Burdick, who recently removed from Painesville.
