THE FENIAN'S APPARENTLY ROUTED.

Gen. Gleason is in command of the Fenians in the vicinity of Huntingtonville, who are well armed. The Canadian forces are assembling and active preparations going on for a fight.

Gen. Gleason has gone back to New York in disgust. Gen. Starr is assuming charge. Steamship Bavaria, from Bremen, has arrived.

Nathaniel Willis founder of the Portland Argus and Youth's Companion, and for many year editor of the Boston Recorder died yesterday, aged 90 years.

THE ONLY FENIANS THAT LEFT HOME LAST EVENING were the Burlington Boys, the rest remaining. Men and officers seem to be without money.

SOME SAY O'NEILL has one or two hundred thousand dollars Fenian funds with him, but this is doubted.

GENERAL SPEAR, Gleason and Prim, who arrived here this morning, have been in close consultation. Gen. Spear has just ordered the men to go into encampment 2 of 3 miles from here.
