In the Summer and Autumn the system is in a less nervous condition than when under the bracing influence of a colder temperature. Keep the bowels unobstructed, the digestive organs and the blood cool in warm weather. To effect this use occasionally a dose of Tarrant's effervescent Seltzer Aperient. It is a gentle cathartic, wholesome tonic, an admirable corrective of the blood deprave, and a most delightful beverage when mixed in one glass of water, and is prepared in a moment and without the agitation of boiling.

MR. SMITH would respectfully inform all proprietors of Hotels, and dealers in Liquors, that he can sell them pure Wines and Liquors 10 per cent, less than any other wholesale establishment in the city; and is also prepared to furnish at equally low rates the Choicest Imported of which the following is one of the manny flattering testimonials received:

[Letter from HON. J. MULLIN, Judge Supreme Court.]
Watertown, N. Y. March 7, 1870.

N. M. SMITH, Esq.,

Dear Sir—Noticing a letter from the Hon. Wm C Pierrepont, in regard to Dr. Hinsse's Elixir of Rhubarb, I would say, that I fully coincide with him in saying that it is an excellent Medicine, performing fully all it is promised to do, and that I use it in my family. Yours truly,

J. MULLEN.

All orders should be addressed to N. M. SMITH, Druggist, wholesale Agent, Watertown, N. Y. to secure attention.

MR. SMITH would also inform the public that he has now a full corps of assistants, who are fully competent to fill all orders and prescriptions. The following notice bears testimony to their capability.

Watertown, June 1, 1869.

An act recently passed by the Legislature for the protection of the public and physicians who prescribe at Drug Stores, renders it necessary that clerks and others putting up prescriptions, should at least have had Two Years experience in putting up the same. We hereby certify, from our own personal knowledge, that N. M. Smith, Druggist, No. 3 Safford Block, has two clerks, Eugene C Van Namee and Edgar L. Reamer, who have been constantly in the habit, for the past two years and over, of putting up such prescriptions correctly; and from our personal experience as physicians we deem them in every respect competent to do the same, as the act directs, for the better safety of the public and protection of the medical profession.
