STRIKERS ARE GAINING.

Outlook Encouraging For the Garment Workers.

MANY CONTRACTORS SETTLING.

The strike proceeding in an orderly manner and employees are confident that their demands will be conceded.

THE TAILORS RETURN TO WORK.

New York, July 31.—About 1,500 tailors of the protective Brotherhood resumed work this morning. The strikers stated that many of the contractors who have signed the new contract are prominent members of the contractors' association. The contractors deny positively that their ranks have been broken, and continue to state that they will not grant any concessions to the strikers. The strike is being conducted in a very orderly manner, and so far not a single arrest has been made among the strikers. The strikers, as a whole, seem to be very well satisfied with the course affairs are taking, and are very confident of success.

BOUND TO HAVE THE FIGHT.

A Bond For One Hundred Thousand Dollars Has Been Given.

DALLAS, Texas, July 31.—Twenty leading business men have decided to erect the Amphitheatre for athletic and convention purposes making it a permanent structure, and the Florida Athletic club will have nothing to do with it. B. F. Lloyd was a ward of the contract yesterday and gave a bond of $100,000 for the faithful performance of all conditions to-day. The plan for the fight for the fight is on the increase again, and letters are pouring in from all sections of the country.

THE BUREAU OF THE TIMES.

EDWARD KIRK, Manager.

The home ground seems to be the stronghold for the Phelps base ball club, as many possibly be the case with the Geneva. The latter of course had a right to court lustily and loud over the complete blunder bestowed upon Phelps Monday afternoon, but they cannot ignore the fact that home plate is effectively occupied by the Phelps battery on Saturday. Yesterday afternoon the Canandaigua were treated in the same fashion by a score of 9 to 4 in favor of the home team.

BETTING FIVE TO ONE.

Will the Big Fight Be Pulled Off in Texas?

New York, July 31.—Al Smith, who has $50,000 cash interest in Corbett's stake took to one to the extent of $100,000 recently that the fight would not take place in Texas. The odds are 5 to 1 in favor of Stewart and his partners would not succeed in pulling off the fight in the Lone Star state.

BLOODY RACE RIOT.

Negroes and Whites Shot Each Other Down in Alabama.

BIRMINGHAM, July 31.—A riot is raging at Brookside, 14 miles west, between negro and whites over the killing of a negro by a white man. Four men were reported killed. Fifteen deputies left for the scene.

STORM AND FLOODS IN KANSAS.

PORT SCOTT, July 31.—An unprecedented precipitation of rain in the southeast corner of Kansas has again flooded the streams and wrought destruction to life and property. In seven hours 4.22 inches of water fell in the city and the entire lower portion of the river is being inundated. Two fatalities have so far resulted from the sudden rise.

SPORTING EVENTS.

Baseball Games, Trotting Races and Other News of Interest.

CLEVELAND, July 31.—Although two of the events were decided in straight heats, there was good racing at the driving park, the time being fast. The weather was cool and the track was good. In the 2:30 class, El Heraldo was a hot favorite. Spitzaway took the first heat after a game struggle, but the chestnut gelding won the next three with ease.

ADVICE FROM HAVANA.

HAVANA, July 31.—Antonio Reguena Aca, a wealthy planter of Cienfuegos, Arturo Primelles, and Gustavo Gavald, a journalist, who were arrested a few days ago on board the steamer Humberto Rodriguez as conspirators with the insurgents, were taken to the penitentiary at Ceuta, where they will suffer imprisonment.
