United States that he had done so, Brazil uttered no protest. If she had any objections, it looks as if then would have been the time to say so.

WILLIAM H. BALLOU, vice-president of the American humane society, who has been most active in opposing the importation of animals for bull fighting at the Atlanta exposition, announces that this feature has been absolutely called off.

It is said that a movement is on foot in Rochester to secure the compulsory registration of cats and dogs. It would likewise be well for the authorities of Geneva not only to require the registration of cats and dogs, but to enact that every feline and canine on the street without a number shall be arrested.

In the death of John Hodge of Lockport a very large number of people throughout the state will feel the loss of a personal friend. For many years Mr. Hodge was an officer in the grand lodge of masons, rounding out his services therein with a year's occupancy of its highest honor.

In November the electors of the state will be permitted to vote upon three profound amendments to the new constitution, and a canal proposition. Amendment No. 1, eliminates the word "male" from Section 1 of Article 2, thereby establishing equal suffrage of the sexes.

Many items of interest dished up for hurried readers. They are arresting boys under 16 years of age in Elmira for smoking cigarettes. Janowski's English-American residents will organize a club.
