TWO CENTS

ON CHRISTMAS DAY.

It Came With Brightness in the Morning.

WITH PEACE TO ALL MEN

HOW THE DAY WAS OBSERVED IN GENEVA AT HOME AND AT CHURCH.

Christmas came yesterday. On the breath of a bright and mild morning its glad message of "Peace on earth, good will to men," was wafted to Geneva, and few there were who failed to note its presence. The morning was beautiful, without sign or suggestion of winter, but lowering clouds came up at a later hour, and at noon rain began to fall, keeping everyone within doors where greater brightness and cheer reigned.

The day was universally observed, stores and offices were closed, and the streets were practically deserted. All Geneva seemingly united in the celebration of the day's festivities. Many homes were cheered by the presence of absent members, and the reunion of families in many instances made the day memorable.

There were public services in some of the churches. At Trinity the day was celebrated at the morning hour with the usual Christmas service, the Rt. Rev. A. Cleveland Cox, bishop of this diocese, preaching the sermon. On Christmas eve a choral service was held, and at midnight the celebration of holy communion was observed. A Christmas night service was held in the evening.

The Christmas services at St. Francis de Sales church consisted of midnight mass, which was largely attended, with children's mass at 8:30 and high mass at 10:30. The music was of a high order. There were regular services at St. Peter's church yesterday.

Men at the Helm.
The following are the new officers of the Geneva Wagon company, chosen for the ensuing year, at the last meeting: President, M. F. Blaine; vice-president, D. E. Moore; treasurer, C. H. Ruka; director, C. H. Huke, D. E. Moore, M. F. Blaine, O. J. G. Rose, W. G. Dove. A satisfactory showing of the business of the year was made by the treasurer's report.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN

GIVEN AT THE OPERA HOUSE ON CHRISTMAS DAY.

The theatre-goes of Geneva, who were disposed to devote a portion of Christmas to theatrical entertainment, had an opportunity last evening to witness the old play, Uncle Tom's Cabin, by the Stetson company. This is a play that rarely falls to draw, and last evening a good-sized house was in attendance to laugh at Topsey and Mark and Miss Ophelia, to cry over Eva's death and to sympathize with the sufferings of Uncle Tom. A matinee was given in the afternoon.

The company is a large and well equipped one, and several parts of the play were well taken, with good scenic effects. The play was enjoyed and the old story was told again with good effect.

Masonic Election.

The annual election of officers of Chapter No. 36, Royal Arch Masons, was held at the lodge rooms last evening and resulted as follows: George A. Peel, H. R.; W. E. Hayes, K.; W. A. Bickford, scribe; C. A. Dewey, secretary; M. S. Sandford, treasurer. The following were appointed: W. E. Stubbs, C. of H.; A. W. Sperry, P. S.; M. Jacobs, R. A. C.; Nelson Billott, M. of 3rd V.; F. C. Hofmann, M. of 2nd V.; A. McMaster, M. of 1st V.; James L. Turner, sentinel. The installation of officers will occur on Wednesday evening, January 31st, W. E. Stubbs, P. H. P., officiating.

Notes from Waterloo Observer.

President Craig, of the Electric Traction company, is looking up plans for the erection of a number of new houses on the western addition of our village. The steam boiler and apparatus for heating the new M. E. church were placed in position last week and tested thoroughly, and worked admirably. They are of the Dunning pattern, Geneva.

An old Cayuga Lake car, with a capacity of seating 60 persons, is being overhauled at the power house premises of the electric road, upholstered, and made as good as new, for parties to make pleasure trips on the electric road between Geneva and Cayuga Lake. It has two trolley poles.

OLD WHISKEY.

There are a few bottles of whiskey that have been in my store (18) eighteen years. D. E. Demyer, 82 Castle street 166-f.

HAPPENINGS OF A DAY.

ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST ABOUT THE TOWN CHRONICLED BY OUR REPORTERS.

A trolley party to Cayuga lake park will be given some time next week.

The cars on the electric road have been well patronized during the week. The Geneva Wagon Works are doing a fine business. Orders are pouring in upon them.

The Mansion House is again under the management of E. H. Damon, who holds the original lease.

An elegant dinner will be served at the Franklin House on New Year's day by Messrs. Atwood & Coon.

Christmas was very generally observed in Geneva, with the usual festivities. It was a mild day, with showers during the afternoon.

Work has been started on a new house on Sherroll street by G. H. Townsend. The frame of the Stryker house on the same street has been completed.

The mail and express business in Geneva has been larger this holiday season than ever before. Employees have been kept very busy.

During Tuesday the electric cars running in Geneva registered over 1,100 fares, and between Geneva and Seneca Falls over 2,000. Good enough for one day.

The town collector has begun gathering up the shooks for the support of the best government the sun ever shone upon. His seat of tribute is at the First National bank.

A magnificent illuminated sign was placed to-day in front of the Alhambra on Exchange street. It is the finest sign ever put up in Geneva.

St. Andrews Christmas festival will take place this evening at the chapel on Pre-emption street, for which ample preparations have been made.

The Hobart college safe has been removed from the post office to the office of the stove works, a member of that firm, W. A. Clark, being treasurer.

The power house of the Traction company at Cayuga lake park has been completed. The pier and pavilion will soon be lighted with electricity and the pavilion will be heated with steam.

An elaborate Christmas dinner was served to a large number of guests at the Kirkwood yesterday by Messrs. Cox & Glover. The menu was one of the finest ever gotten up here.

The unfortunate Italian, James Tolarke, who was killed by a high voltage switch engine at the Junction Saturday night, was buried Tuesday afternoon in the Catholic cemetery.

A Christmas tree gave employment to the children of the North Presbyterian Sunday School on Tuesday evening. After the distribution of the gifts, refreshments were served in the church parlors.

The Keyes place on Seneca street has been purchased by Mrs. Alexander, a daughter, who had been living there previous to her mother's death, consideration $4,600. She will occupy the place.

The regular meeting of Arris court, No. 9, Tribe of Ben Hur, will be held this Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock sharp. This is the night for the annual election of officers and a full attendance is desired.

The Sunday schools of St. Peter's and Trinity churches will unite in a Christmas entertainment at the opera house on Saturday evening, to begin at 7 o'clock. Preparations have been made for an enjoyable time.

A woman who lives in the country was placed in the lock-up Tuesday night for intoxication, and amused herself by setting fire to her bed clothing. No serious damage was done, but she was hustled out in a hurry.

A little boy by the name of Frank Townsend, of Penn Yan, who is visiting friends on Elmwood avenue, fell from a wheel this morning while on the corner of Putney and High street and suffered quite a severe shock. He was unconscious when picked up.

The artist F. M. Tuttle reports at the Times office that he has recently sold twelve pictures, and will finish three more soon. While on his way to Mr. Coursey's office this morning, he says some one threw a stone at him, and thinks there are bad boys who should be looked after.

Harrigan Did Play.

Manager Harrigan informs the Times that the report that Actor Harrigan did not take his part in Old Lavender at the opera house on Saturday night, by reason of indisposition, was incorrect. Mr. Harrigan has no under-study, and although suffering from a cold at that time was able to sustain his part. Without Mr. Harrigan there is no Old Lavender.

SOME RUNWAY BOYS.

THEY START FOR THE SOUTH BY THE FALL BROOK.

Three Geneva boys, each about fourteen years of age, ran away from home last night causing some excitement. They were Will Updike, Eugene Tonney and Roy Biddlecome. They boarded the evening Fall Brook train. The Updike boy had money to pay his fare, and only went as far as Earles, when he left the party and returned home.

Mrs. Tonney became frightened and made an effort to get trace of her boy. She learned from the Updike boy their departure. Word was sent by the station agent to points along the road. The two boys were found at Elmwood Junction, where they were held until this morning when they were brought home.

Making Improvements.

The Geneva, Waterloo, Seneca Falls & Cayuga Lake Traction Company is equipping the car house at Waterloo with steam heating pipes. The repair shop will soon be furnished with a huge lathe capable of swinging a large armature and with hollow spindles for rod cutting. There will be a planer capable of planing a 24-inch piece of iron or steel, also a heavy drill press. A large hoisting crane will occupy the space between the two car pits. The necessary accommodations of blacksmithing forge, emery wheels, etc., will be supplied. A large stock room has been built at one side for keeping tools and supplies, also a dust-proof apartment for winding magnets. All the machinery will be run by a large motor fed by the generators in the neighboring power house.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Blues 341, Reds 323.
Blues and Reds will play a game of basketball.

The membership has exactly doubled since Sep. 1.

F. A. Herendeel, W. A. Brewer, I. L. Peck, A. G. Parker, Joe Franklin, F. Early and W. Cummings are recent accessions.

L. H. Steigelman, H. A. Dossie and John C. Rockemann of the Y. M. C. A. Launch room 2, have been the successful workers since the last report.

The association rooms and privileges were well patronized yesterday the approximate attendance being fully 250 during the day. Several games of basketball and in door base ball were played.

A neat contest thermometer has been added with indication to show the leader and the lead by points. It is the work of C. E. Hammond.

Christmas Dinner at Kirkwood.

The menu for Christmas dinner at the Hotel Kirkwood yesterday was a very elaborate affair, and reflected great credit on the proprietors, Messrs. Cox and Glover. About forty prominent residents of Geneva sat down to the tables at that popular hostelry and speak in the highest terms of praise of the service. The dinner was an honor to the house and a privilege that Geneva families appreciate on such an occasion.

Referee Case on Trial.

The case of McMann vs. Manchester is on to-day before J. N. Hammond, of Seneca Falls, as referee in Lawyer Moore's office. The action was brought to recover for services in the estate for which the defendant is executor. W. S. Moore appeared for plaintiff and J. E. Bean for defendant. The case will be summed up to-day.

PERFIDY OF MAN.

A Canadaigua Mystery Cleared up at Last.

SAD STORY OF BETRAYAL.

LIZZIE LOCKWOOD FOUND NEAR RUSHVILLE AND RESTORED TO HER SORROWING PARENTS.

CANANDAIGUA, Dec. 26.—The Lizzie Lockwood mystery is cleared up at last. The story of her disappearance from her home here is known to the readers of the DAILY TIMES. The other night Officer J. W. Booth went to the residence of John Underhill near Rushville and found Lizzie with her three weeks old baby. He brought her back home to her sorrowing father. The man with whom she went away is now living in town. He is a well known musician.

The Underhills state that on the Sunday night when Lizzie disappeared from home here, this man drove up to their door and asked for board and lodging for the girl whom he represented as the wife of a friend of his, a travelling man named Kelley, who desired to board in a quiet place for a while. Assurances of a goodly sum for board and his friendship for the young man induced them to admit the girl to their household. Of late the board money has not been forthcoming and the Underhills having learned the true state of affairs divulged the facts and the girl's father promptly sent for her.

As the man in the case is married and cannot offer legal reparation for the girl's wrong the outcome of the matter can only be conjectured. The girl's father will take the matter to the proper authorities.

Canandaigua Briefs.

CANANDAIGUA, Dec. 26.—A pleasant Christmas event, at high noon yesterday, was the wedding at the home of the bride's parents on Chapin street, of Miss Jessie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Grievie and Mr. George T. Thompson. The groom is a well-known lumber dealer; the bride is one of Canandaigua's most gifted vocalists. The ceremony was performed in the presence of near relatives only, by Rev. J. Jones Lawrence, of the Presbyterian church. The happy pair left at 3:40 p. m. for the east.

Yesterday morning early a burglarious attempt was made to enter the Lally liquor store. The burglar, in his attempt to get in over the transom, broke a large light of glass, which made a racket and drew the attention of Officer Sheehan, whose approach frightened the burglar away.

Dr. Chapman's Accident.

The Rev. W. W. Weller, chairman of the executive committee, received a telegram this morning to the effect that the Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman, D. D., has met with a serious accident which will lay him aside for a month. He was expected in Geneva within a few days to conduct special religious services. Other arrangements, however, will probably be made, and perhaps he will come later.

Acting Like Mad.

The Waterloo News of Tuesday chronicles the following: A trolley car left the track just this side of the Klendon, last evening, running into the embankment and smashing the vestibule of one of the new cars. Another similar accident, though with no damage, occurred this morning. The cars were delayed several trips by the accident, which was caused by ice on the track.

CUT BY A SAW.

A WORKMAN INJURED AT THE LEONARD MILLS.

While working at Leonard's saw mill at the foot of Washington street Monday afternoon, at about 1:30 o'clock, says the Geneva Courier, Robert Putney, colored, was terribly injured. In company with Sylvanus White he was employed around a large saw. Putney was standing on the saw-carrier arranging something. Mr. White did not notice him and pulled the carrier back. Putney was thrown on the table. His left foot struck the saw and that member was frightfully cut. The left leg was also broken in four places, the bones being badly splintered. Other workmen came to his assistance. He was placed in a wagon, bleeding profusely from his frightful wounds. Drs. Rupert and DeLauey dressed the wounded foot and reduced the fractures. Putney is a single man, a hard worker, and is well thought of by his fellow workmen. His home is in Union Alley. He was taken to the Church Home.

Canandaigua Trustees.

CANANDAIGUA, Dec. 26.—At the regular meeting of the village board of trustees considerable business of importance was transacted. Bills were audited as follows: Noah T. Clark, village map survey, $170.40; John B. Hall, sewer commissioner, $9.00; Theo. Perkins & Co., material, $3.61; George W. Tiffany, labor, $10.50; Frank W. Chesbro, sewer commissioner, $9.00; Peter Lee, et al., street labor, 137.15; M. Tuohy, carting hose, $1.00; C. H. Baldwin, coal, $3.75; James Van Ardale, erroneous assessment, refunded, $2.92. A petition containing 176 names, asking for the appointment of an extra policeman for night patrol was talked. The Ontario County Journal was designated to publish the annual statement and to print the ballots for the coming charter election. The committee on printing acknowledged that it had not asked the democratic paper for a bid because the custom was to favor the politics that were in the majority on the board. This was protested against by Messrs. Smith and Burrell, both republicans, the latter saying he considered such a proceeding as petty and beneath the dignity of the board, especially now that the village government is run under the new charter.

Married in Phelps.

PHELPS, Dec. 26.—The marriage of Frank Warner and Miss Kate Garlock was celebrated here yesterday at high noon, Rev. Dr. W. H. Webb, pastor of the contracting parties, officiating, at the home of the bride's brother, Charles Garlock, 6 East Main street. The house was darkened and handsomely trimmed and illuminated for the occasion. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The wedding dinner was served by Caterer Ridley. Following a short wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Warner will take up their residence in Clifton Springs where the groom has established a grocery business.

Mr. Allen Understar, of the Geneva Advertiser says: We understand that A. A. Allen of the drug store has taken charge of Beebe's hat store and will manage it hereafter. We don't quite understand the situation, as he is proprietor of the drug store.
