The 19th annual meeting of the Suffolk County Volunteer Firemen's Association will be held in Southampton, Wednesday Oct. 12th, at 12 o'clock.

FOR SALE OR TO LET.—The property formerly owned by Edward F. Terry. Will rent part of the house now occupied by Benjamin T. Davis after October first. For price and full particulars apply to EDWIN D. FISHEL, Riverhead.

Judge Holt of the U. S. District Court, at Brooklyn, Thursday morning, granted to Julius Hutton, of this village a discharge in bankruptcy proceedings. James T. Walsh represented the bankrupt.

Benjamin T. Davis has purchased the residence of Mrs. Rosalie T. Slade, on First Street. The sale was made through the real estate agency of Edwin D. Fishel, terms private.

The will of Harriet K. Udall, late of Babylon, was proved by Judge Bedford, Monday. The estate valued at $1,000 personal and $12,000 real is left to testator's daughters, Ida M. and Minnie S. Udall.

We are in receipt of a copy of the schedule of the Huntington Horticultural Society, the second annual exhibition of which will be held in the Opera House, Huntington, on Sept. 27 and 28.

Miss Hannah M. Stephens, of this village, and John Warren Fanning, of Baiting Hollow were married at the home of the bride in this village, last Saturday. The Rev. Frank Voorhes, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Baiting Hollow, officiated.

Lawrence Barkosvki, of Baiting Hollow, was fined $10 for contempt of Court for failing to appear before E. W. Tooker, as referee, in supplementary proceedings. James Vail was the judgment creditor and was represented by J. W. Hand.

Louisa F. Pierce, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Pierce, of Oswego, and grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Abaz Bradley, of this village, died at her home in Oswego, last Sunday night. Mrs. Pierce and her two children and maid had been spending the summer here with her parents, and returned to Oswego the week before. The child was taken ill very suddenly with convulsions, early in the evening of Sunday, and although two physicians were called, and did all they could for the little sufferer, they could not save her life. She was the oldest child, aged two years twenty-nine days.

Everett O. Terry, who met with a terrible accident at Bridgehampton on Tournament Day, continues to improve and we are pleased to learn that it is hoped to remove him to his home here next week.

The train agents in service on the Long Island Railroad early in the summer have been laid off. It is not learned whether the plan was successful or not. The train men wore conductor's uniforms, boarded the trains, made themselves known to the conductor of the train and collected the fares.

FANNING'S STORE HOUSE BURNED.
The store house of O. T. Fanning and Co., at Port Jefferson, and formerly the Methodist Church, was burned to the ground early Sunday morning. The fire originated in a small storehouse near a blacksmith shop which adjoined the storehouse, and all three buildings were consumed. The loss to O. T. Fanning and Co. is heavy, as they carried no insurance.

PAIR BALLS WELL ATTENDED.
The 1st annual ball held at the Auditorium Wednesday evening was well attended and the music by L'Hommedieu orchestra of five pieces was all that could be desired. The 20th Agricultural Ball at the Opera House Thursday night was one of the largest Pair Balls ever held here. The music by Bishop Bros. orchestra of five pieces was splendid and the affair was a great success. On account of the small attendance that went to the Auditorium Thursday evening no dance was held.

FINED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.
Frank Vail, of East Quogue, was fined $15 by Judge Jaycox at Special Term of the County Court here Monday for contempt of Court. Some time ago Vail was examined before James T. Walsh, as referee, in supplementary proceedings. After he had been served with the order, Vail paid over some money belonging to him, and for so doing the Court adjudged him in contempt. Vail was represented by LeRoy E. Raynor while G. W. Hildreth appeared for the judgment creditor.

ATTENDED REUNION OF REGIMENT
Among the members from this village who attended the annual reunion of the 127th N. Y. Regiment Veteran's Association at Greenport last Thursday were G. A. Buckingham, Lyman B. L'Hommedieu Pillsworth Wells, Henry Lane, Gilbert B. Lane, John M. Bassinah, Lester Hill, John Jacobs, John Conklin. The following Sons of Veterans also attended: N. T. Corwin, Fred Corwin, John Oliver, C. Henry Lane, John S. Elmer, Benjamin and Ernest Conklin.

FRUIT THIEVING CONTINUES.
Complaints continue to come from people who are losing fruit and vegetables. The thieving has been carried out recently on the wholesale plan. Frank C. Lane lost fifty big yellow pumpkins one night recently and about the same time John Magee missed a great quantity of very fine lima beans. A lot of boys visited the watermelon patch of Mark Rossert and carried off a wagon load of melons and kicked another wagon load to pieces on the vines. It is hoped that the perpetrators of these outrages will be caught and punished.

At the show of horses to-day the following won prizes: Pair carriage horses, Frank M. Newins, Riverhead, first; Mrs. W. M. K. Olcott, East Quogue, second.

Business Road Horse, Benj. F. Jayne, East Setauket, first; W. M. Litchard, Riverhead, second; John F. Downs, Cutchogue, third.

Carriage Horse, C. B. Turbill, Mattituck, first; John M. Hallock, second; Mrs. W. M. K. Olcott, East Quogue, third.

High Stepper, Neilson Olcott, East Quogue, first.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Bishop are at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Bishop. Mr. Bishop has been very ill at Walton, N. Y. for several months, and we are glad to note that his health has improved so that he could come to his former home.

The following appeared in last week's Journal of Northport under Smithtown Branch news:

Mr. Vail, who drives the candy wagon for Griswold & Co. of Riverhead, was taken very ill with colic Tuesday, at Penney's Hotel, where he was putting up for the night. Mr. Vail was not able to continue his route for two days.

A. D. Johnson, who has been seriously ill at the home of his father-in-law, Hannibal Corwin, in this village we are pleased to learn is out of danger, and hopes are now entertained for his recovery. Mr. Johnson was stricken with pleural pneumonia about a week ago. He was formerly employed as telegraph operator at the depot in this village for four years and is now in the employ of the L. I. R. R. Co., at Long Island City.

LAUREL
Residents of this place were grieved to hear of the illness of Mrs. Horace J. Booth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Moore. Mrs. Booth suffered an attack of appendicitis at her home in Manhattan and on Monday an operation was performed at the New York Hospital. The operation was successful and the patient is steadily improving. Her many friends hope for a speedy recovery.

AT PROCTOR'S.

The strongest stock company organizations ever gathered together have been put under contract for the Proctor companies at the Fifth Avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Theatres for the coming season. With Edwin Arden and Isabelle Evenson at the lead of the Fifth Avenue Company, and William Ingersoll and Beatrice Morgan at the head of the One Hundred and Twenty-fifth Street Company, supported in each instance by a strong cast of experienced players, it is possible to present a much higher grade of attractions than the average stock company is capable of producing. Already capital productions of Clyde Fitch's "The Climbers"—one of Clyde Fitch's most successful plays, and "Men and Women," the best play written by David Belasco and Henry C. De Mille, have attracted favorable comment of the New York press, and the immediate repertoire is equally promising and important. Among the plays scheduled for early production are "Lost River," a great scenic melodrama, which enjoyed a long run at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, and will be produced at the Proctor houses with the same elaborate equipment of scenery. "Soldiers of Fortune," Robert Edson's greatest success, will also be given with the original scenery, as will "A Gentleman of France," in which Kyrle Bellew scored so strongly. "Money Mad," in which E. J. Henley, William H. Thompson, Wilton Lackaye and Mine Selzman jointly appeared, will be done with special scenery, duplicating the astonishing effects of the original, and amount of other heavy productions soon to be seen are "The Java Lee," Julia Marlowe's big scenic novelty, "Captain Letterblair," in which E. H. Southern scored so great a success; "Scherzo Service," with all of the original effects and introduced by William Gillette, and "D'Arcy, of the Guards," which was Henry Miller's starting vehicle two years ago. Negotiations for other equally important productions are yet pending, which will make the Proctor season the most prosperous and important ever undertaken.

The old Benjamin Schenck, long-stayed at Oyster Bay Cove, said to be 120 years old, was destroyed by fire recently. It is said Washington was entertained there, and its occupants were very proud of the possession of a high post bed and a spindle-legged chair which he used while there.

William H. Burnett, of Bayville, is said to be one of the largest men on Long Island. He weighs 410 pounds, and is as frisky as one of the lightest weight. Burnett is a member of Primrose Lodge, I. O. O. F., and the lodge believes it has the heaviest odd Fellow on the Island.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Rose Conklin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Conklin, of Montauk, and Robert Baldwin, brother of President Baldwin, of the L. I. R. R. Co., to take place at the home of the prospective bride on Thursday, September 22.
