Back to the Pavement

Much has been said in the past about the "Back to the Soil" and "Back to the Farm" movement. Some people have exemplified it. A lot of city people come out to the country during the warm weather. They play more or less vigorously at farming. The number who move out to the country for the summer is about twenty times the number who come out to live all the year around.

Another tide is now pulling in the other direction, back to the pavements of city and town life. The only soil it has much use for is the hard macadam of city streets and the diamonds of the automobile boulevards, and the diamonds of the ball parks. Its white lights, to have "something doing." The white lights, whistles, give them a cheerful sense of company and life.

Inconvenient Silence

When is an investigation not an investigation? It might well become a conundrum, but Inspector Dwyer knows the answer. He is quite sure (so sure, in fact, that he accuses the Daily Advance of deliberate falsehood) that when he calls two men into his office and closets them with himself for an hour or so he is not investigating anything; he is merely looking into the matter. He is persons not blessed with the Inspector's delicate powers of discrimination. He may be sure, however, that he knows what he means even if no one else does—and how could anyone?

Refrigerator Prices

It should not be forgotten that the recent convention of the National Association of Manufacturers, representing 75 per cent. of the country's factory production, issued a recommendation to manufacturers to reduce prices. Usually when manufacturers get together, it is to talk about the necessity of increasing prices. The contrary advice now offered would suggest that these business leaders see danger signals which should not go unheeded.

The Telephone Protest

The meeting held Thursday evening to protest against the change in the name of the Telephone Exchange was a success. The meeting was held at the Telephone Exchange and was attended by a large number of people. The meeting was held at the Telephone Exchange and was attended by a large number of people.
