KEARNS HOUNDS CARPENTIER FOR MATCH WITH DEMPSEY

Is Told He Will Have to Go to London to Talk Fight

By HENRY L. FAIRRELL (United Press Staff Correspondent)

With Jack Kearns and Francois Descomps both in town the Dempsey-Carpentier fight seems no nearer a reality than it was months ago when the Frenchman started up the bay railing in broken English "Send me to him."

"London, nothing," Kearns said. "Here I am, the manager of the world's champion, practically running the challenger out of the country for a fight—and now he says he came on over to London."

"If I can get Descomps in a conference I'll throw down the papers with my name on them for a fight any time and tell him to sign or admit that he doesn't want to fight," Kearns said.
