The Rev. Father Snyder officiated. The bride was attended by Miss Elizabeth Walsh and John Higgins acted as best man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Kline left for their honeymoon in Philadelphia, from where they returned yesterday, and have taken up their residence on Post avenue, Port Richmond.

MARY PICKFORD IN 'SUDS' AT PALACE

It may interest those who see Mary Pickford in "Suds," at the Palace Theatre today, tomorrow and Wednesday, to know that the wonderful visions of broad meadows deep with grass, and the life of luxury and ease which Miss Pickford as Amanda Afflick, the little laundry lady, promises Lavender, the delectable old delivery horse, she saves from the glue factory, actually happened to Lavender in real life. During the filming of "Suds," Lavender adapted himself to read-ly to the screen work and acted so well, permitting so many indignities to his person that when the picture was finished Miss Pickford sent him to a large ranch near her Beverley Hills home, and there Lavender will spend his few declining years with nothing to do but take life easy and bask of his film experiences to his thoroughbred companions. In addition to the feature picture the usual bill of vaudeville will be given including The Seebacks, Lou and Jean Archer in a specialty dance act; Tepper & Irving and Signor Romani.

LOCAL CRICKETERS ON ALL NEW YORK TEAM

Eleven players have been picked to represent All-New York in the international cricket match against the Inceogall team of England on the grounds of the Staten Island Cricket and Tennis Club on September 22 and 23. The official list of players is as follows: F. F. Kelly, captain, H. R. S. C. Jones, C. A. S. Dewhurst, W. M. Raeburn and E. Turville, Staten Island Cricket and Tennis Club; I. R. Miller, E. G. Nall, R. Corrao and F. C. Taylor, Major Field Cricket Club; J. I. Porter, Brooklyn Cricket Club; H. L. Woodruffe, Bensonhurst Field Club. A trial match against a team to be selected by J. S. Bretz, captain of the New York Halifax Cup team will be played at West New Brighton on September 19.

The block and home parties were decorated from cellar to roof with flags and Chinese lanterns of all kinds. The music by Joe Fort's jazz boys was a treat to all. The following were in charge: Henry Cavalry, chairman; James Durkin, Frank Dacey, T. Hull, H. Hoffenkamp, and W. Flannan.

Gordon Street Democrats Celebrate

While the West Brighton Democrats were enjoying themselves at their block party the members and friends of the thirty-first election district held sway on Gordon street, Staten Island, on Saturday evening with a block party and cakewalk. The feature of the occasion was the cakewalk in which several of the old timers took part and created much amusement for the on-lookers by their tummy savings and steps in the line of march. Another feature that had the large gathering amused was a horseless "auto-
