LOCAL AFFAIRS.

THE TOWN BOARD THE LINCOLN BRIDGE QUESTION.

The town Board met at their rooms in this village on Monday the 18th inst. About the only matter under consideration was the reconstruction of the Lincoln bridge, a portion of which was carried away by the freshet last spring.

THE OLD STANDARD MEAT MARKET.

The Old Standard Meat Market is one of the ancient landmarks of Fairport. It has been in existence something like fifteen years, changing hands several times during that period.

DR. HEDLEY'S LECTURES.

The Congregational church is being well filled each night by the best people of our village to hear the above lectures on Physiognomy.

The Western New York Fair.

The premium lists of the third Western New York Fair are now being circulated. As before stated it commences on the 16th of next month and continues four days.

THE OFFICERS.

- President—William Osis. Vice Presidents—Thomas Brown, Jr., Daniel Wood, Thomas A. Slocum. Secretary—William I. Wallace.

SUPERINTENDENTS.

- General Superintendent—William Hamilton of Livingston county. Dept. of Horses—William D. McPherson, Rochester.

The total amount of premiums offered is $8,000.

On the 17th, 18th and 19th there will be trials of speed. On the 18th the annual address will be delivered, and on that day there will be an exhibition of ladies' driving, boys' riding, and foot racing.

The grounds are now undergoing improvements, new sheds and fences are being built, and other arrangements will be perfected rendering better accommodations for exhibitors and visitors.

REMEMBER Morey's cash store.

If you want to save money give him a call.

A LITTLE ADVICE TO THE TOURIST.

If a gentleman, prepare yourself with a rubber overcoat and a stout stick, which are very handy if you want to see all of interest.

VALUABLE HORSE DROWNED.

Mr. A. B. Osborn of the Osborn House of this village, met with a serious loss yesterday morning about 3 o'clock.

A FINE ASSORTMENT OF FALL-STYLE HATS AT MOREY'S.

The Camp meeting of the Free Methodists closed last night. Quite a number of roughs congregated there and behaved outrageously.

NEW AND NOBBY.

Those neat neck ties which has just been received by Dickinson & Hill. Walk up, gents, and get something nice.

Watkins Glen—Its Surroundings.

After enjoying a pleasant ride on one of the Seneca Lake line of steamers, you arrive at the pleasant village of Watkins. This place like Brooklyn might be called the city of churches, as it has six or eight very fine edifices, and is no larger than Fairport.

When you have passed the Mountain house, you enter the most picturesque part of the Glen. The scenery is magnificent; words cannot express any idea of its beauty.

OUR MACEDON LETTER.

MACEDON, Aug. 11th, 1873.

MR. EDITOR—As it has been some time since you and your readers have been visited with an infliction in the shape of a letter from me, and may be thinking I had gone "where the woodbine twineth," I thought it best to put in an appearance and "arise to explain."

I like a residence in a quiet little village like this far better than a life in the city. In a city we are choked with dust, roasted with the heat, and deafened with the incessant noise.

These plank walks remind me of the political parties of the day. They will get a lot of planks, generally hemlock and shanty, at the end of all their "Speech Payments," "Free Trade," "Prohibition," "High Tariff," &c.

CHERRY STREET.

C. B. HART.

Having purchased the interest of H. H. Howell, his late partner, in the Model Meat Market, proposes to "run the institution" right along, and is now prepared to furnish customers with the very best quality of...

Fresh and Salted Meats.

BACON, POULTRY, &c.

Beef, Lamb, Mutton.

PORK, VEAL, &c., &c.

If you want a good Roast or Steak call on me. I pay Cash for stock in good condition for the market; also for Hides, pelts, tallow, or anything else that can find a market for. I sell at the lowest cash rates, avoiding long credit, believing that system of trade hostile both to the trader and seller.
