

CHURCH AND CHOIR

if your Church Doings are not Recorded here, it's your Own Fault.

The Christmas exercises of the First Methodist Sunday school will be held on Thursday evening, Dec. 23.

Mr. F. B. Iglar of the Rochester Theological Seminary has been secured by the Congregational Church to preach at their services until the coming of the new pastor, Rev. J. Wm. Davies, of Chicago.

The true spirit of Christmas will be exemplified at the exercises of the Raymond Baptist Sunday school, which will be held in the church Thursday evening, Dec. 23rd, when the older children of the school will bring gifts which are to be given to the poor of the community instead of coming to the exercises to listen to the program and to receive gifts.

Rev. E. E. Sprague of Salamanca was the speaker at the union services at the First Baptist church Sunday evening, the subject of the sermon being "The Risen Lord." Mr. Sprague is a very forceful speaker, and he was listened to very attentively by the audience.

We desire that every treasurer of the church, no matter what he is treasurer of, bring his books with all vouchers to the church no later than next Sunday morning, or better, leave them at the home of C. P. Bancroft on Woodland avenue during this week. A report of the auditing committee will be called for Monday evening.

Our Christmas cantata will be given at the morning service on the 28th. All who were there enjoyed the men's dinner last Friday night. A splendid supper was served by the ladies of that division, and it was followed by an intensely interesting talk by Mr. Eddy. One of the indications of the way it was enjoyed was seen in the way the fellows gathered about in groups and spent an hour after the dinner in a social way. We are planning for the next one on Jan. 14.

Notice. All persons are ordered to remove the snow and ice from their sidewalks before nine o'clock a. m. or the same will be done by the Village and assessed against the property.

NEW PRINCIPAL

J. L. Hopkins of Nunda, Chosen to Head Fairport Schools

Prof. John Lee Hopkins Jr., A. B., A. M., a graduate of Hamilton College, '09, and also a student at the summer school of Columbia University, in which he studied school administration, has been elected to the position of principal of the Fairport schools to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Professor Burton, and is to assume charge of the Fairport schools after the Christmas vacation.

Professor Hopkins whose people live in Owasco, is now principal of the Nunda High school, this being his third year there. Previous to his principalship in Nunda, Mr. Hopkins was principal of a private school at Newark, New Jersey, for six years. He comes very highly recommended, and it was only after being assured that they could secure another man that the Nunda board of education would release Mr. Hopkins; this they did at a special meeting Saturday night, and immediately Mr. Hopkins telephoned Dr. G. S. Price, president of the local school board, to that effect.

Professor Hopkins is a young man 29 years of age, is married, and will no doubt receive a warm welcome here, when he comes to take charge of the schools, which have been so ably conducted by his predecessor, Professor Burton.

Mr. Hopkins has engaged in athletics to a considerable extent, specializing in track while in Auburn High school and in basket ball in college, and has coached a number of teams in the schools where he has taught.

At Nunda extensive efforts have been made during the past year to enlarge the Nunda school district to take in the surrounding districts within a reasonable transportation distance and establish a community high school. During this past fall Mr. Hopkins has made speeches favoring this project in all of the 15 districts surrounding Nunda, and this educational campaign has aroused a decided interest in the community for better and more practical education.

School closes Friday afternoon of this week for the Christmas holidays, to re-open Monday, January 3rd.

The High school basketball team plays the Macedon High team at Macedon Saturday evening of this week. Rhetoricals will be given Friday afternoon in the assembly hall. The program will begin at 2 o'clock and will be a Christmas program.

The grades of the North side school will have their Christmas program together, exercises beginning at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. On the South side some of the grades combine together for their Christmas exercises, which will be held at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

Thursday evening a reception was given in honor of Principal Burton at the High school by the faculty. Besides the teachers there were present former teachers of the community and their husbands. Mr. Burton was presented with a pair of art bronze Indian bookholders by the members of the faculty.

More than 50 men gathered at the First Methodist church Friday evening on the occasion of the second in the series of six men's dinners given under the auspices of the men of the church. The roast beef dinner was served by a committee from the Ladies' Aid society, and music was furnished by Roy VanNorman with the clarinet and Miss Edith Briggs at the piano, and a male quartet sang. The address of the evening was given by Prof. George E. Eddy on Turkey's relation to the present war. Mr. Eddy was for two years a teacher in Roberts college, Constantinople, and had an excellent opportunity of studying the Turk at first hand. He gave a most interesting and instructive talk on the Turk as he is today and gave the men a clear view of the manners, customs, and ideals of the inhabitants of that far-off land, thus enabling them to better understand the attitude of the Turk. Mr. Eddy was given a hearty unanimous vote of thanks for his enlightening address, which was enjoyed thoroughly.

Baptist Home News. Dec. 7th our missionary prayer meeting session was given over to Miss Waugh, who gave an outline and some details of her teaching and missionary work among the colored people in Georgia and North Carolina. Miss Waugh continued her noble work 50 years. The last 38 years she devoted particularly to missionary work in James City and Newburn, North Carolina. Eternity alone can tell the extent and results of her self-sacrificing labors.

During the last thirty-five years Miss Waugh had as colleague Miss Williams, who is also now living at the Home. We are expecting to hear at our next meeting Miss Williams' account of her part in the work. Sunday, Dec. 12th the expected speaker could not come and Mrs. De Witt, of Fairport gave a very interesting talk.

No Argument Coming. "Did you speak to father about me, Arthur?" "Yes, I did, dear, and he agreed with me heartily." "Then he said I might marry you?" "Why—er—no. I didn't quite get to the point of asking him that. I just said you were a fine girl."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

WASHINGTON—MOST WASTEFUL

Leads All American Cities In Throwing Away Good Food.

The federal government conducts many kinds of investigations, but Washington was hardly prepared to learn that United States agents had been digging into the garbage dumps of the country. As a result of this latest inquiry the department of agriculture announces that Washington is the most wasteful city in the United States. Careful examinations of the contents of garbage cans were made with a view to determine what percentage of food products daily thrown away might have been put to wholesome use had housewives of the various cities conducted their establishments more economically.

A complete report on the federal government's investigation will be published soon.
