Salamancan to pay slightly more than 12 per cent against assessors' adjournment.

TAX RATE IS $16.29

Salamancan city will pay slightly more than 12 per cent of the total tax liability of the town, compared to last year's assessment of $23,458,123. The city's assessed valuation of $22,997,724 is $301,423 more than last year, with the assessed value of the city's real estate being the highest in the county. The tax rate of $16.29 per $100 of assessed valuation is the same as last year and has remained unchanged for five years.

Mr. Senear, $46,000 for maintenance of Holiness Mission congregation looked on.

The Salamanca Inquirer was made the Democrat's "office of record" for the county for the first time in 1927, according to the board of assessors.

The county superintendent of agriculture, Mr. Colvin of East Otto, who is ill, will address the audience at the meeting of the Farm Bureau next week.

Locomotive and handcar, now in the hands of the railroad, were salvaged by the county superintendent of agriculture.

Mr. Griffith $500 for a sewerage point.

Mr. Colvin of East Otto, who is ill, will address the audience at the meeting of the Farm Bureau next week.

Mr. Colvin of East Otto, who is ill, will address the audience at the meeting of the Farm Bureau next week.