

N. Y. Cent. & H. Time Table. Table with columns for destination and time.

Here and Thereabouts

For business purposes this office will continue to be conducted under the name of C. O. Beach & Co.

The Editor's office hours will be from ten to twelve a. m. and from two to five p. m.

We want a reliable correspondent in each and every town and village in Orleans county.

Local Notes. -Gold this morning, 111 7/8. -Eggs per doz., 82 cents.

-Putty, per pound, 8 cents. -Clams, 2 cents a piece.

-The sprinkler in L. is now. -Adler & Co. offer great inducements.

-Get your Auction Bill printed at this office. -Work on the swing bridge is going on rapidly.

-No chance for amusement here this winter. -Buy your overcoats at Goodman & Farnham's.

-The Albion Lyceum holds its meeting to-night. -Local news is by no means plentiful around here.

-Bill heads printed neatly and cheaply at this office. -Read the Western correspondence on our second page.

-A charge will soon be made in the Railroad Time Table. -Social parties and hops are the rage in Gaines and Carlton.

-It will surely be good sleazing, if Josh Billings Altimira is correct. -Snow fell to the depth of about two inches in this vicinity, last night.

-The Board of Trustees have passed a new ordinance. See another column. -Tomorrow's Thanksgiving. There'll be an immense consumption of turkeys.

-There will be service in the different churches in this village to-morrow forenoon. -Napkins, Towels and Table Damask almost given away by C. F. Currier, at 47 Main st. Call and get some.

New York. We received on Monday several boxes of new work from the manufacturers of Vandewater, Wells & Co., New York.

We learn from the Holley Standard that James Copp, of Brockport, has cut off one of his fingers, while cutting hay with a hay knife.

It is said that Mr. H. H. Wood, of Brockport, falls on his way to the train, in Rochester, stepped into a hole in the sidewalk and broke his leg.

Bishop McQuaid and the sisters of Charity. Bishop McQuaid appears to be carrying things with a high hand among his flock in Rochester.

Of the best quality and value at Goodman & Farnham's. A Whole Paragraph. We slip this from the Auburn News, and commend it to the consideration of the class to whom it applies.

"What a man complains that he is worth nothing in the world, stop him and give him this lesson: Suppose a man earns a dollar a half a day. He may work for a few, or none, earn less. So take that as a basis. If a man earns $1.50 per day, he receives $45.00 for his year's labor.

The Swing Bridge. Active operations have commenced on Main street preparatory to the removal of the canal bridge, in order to make way for the swing bridge about to be constructed.

Under this caption the Standard Times announced upon the course of the Orleans County Board of Supervisors, in reducing the salary of some of the County officers.

Great Bargains. The best bargains in this county are being offered by C. F. Currier, in the way of Merino, Empire Cloths and rich Plaids, at 47 Main st.

We made a flying visit to Holley last Friday, and although the mud lay thick in the streets, yet its summer cheerfulness hadn't entirely worn off. The stores were filled with fresh invoices of fall goods.

New Goods. A lot of new Bellinians in all different colors, for Dresses and Cloaks, in price from one dollar up, at Bingham & Hopkins' also a new lot of Satin de Chines in new shades and colors. Look at them!

Board of Supervisors. The session of the Board of Supervisors of Orleans county began on Monday, the 14th inst. The following gentlemen composed the Board: Barré—Charles H. Mattison, Chairman—S. F. Van Camp, Clerk—N. G. Pettengill.

Memorial Mission Chapel in Rochester. The Rochester Chronicle of Monday has an account of the dedication of a Memorial Mission Chapel in that city on Sunday last, by the pastor and society of the Brick Church.

Keep Warm. To do this you must buy your overcoats of Goodman & Farnham.
