GUILDERLAND — Michael S. Mustafu, a retired Guilderland native, has retired as a master sergeant from the Army. He has been with the Army for 20 years, working in special operations and information.

Mustafu, a Guilderland High School graduate, was born in Warren, Virginia with his two children.

Kenneth Ducker

ST. CLOUD, Fla. — Kenneth Eldred Ducker, 71, of Montana and resident of St. Cloud, died on Sept. 4 at Orlando Regional Medical Center in Florida. He was born April 2, 1929, on a farm north of Potsdam, N.Y., to Jack D. and Sylvia (Belles) Ducker. He was married to Carol Myers in 1951, they had one daughter, Amy Kathleen Glanzrock. "She was very gifted and very talented," Mr. Ayward said. "She had a special talent with technology, and was very adept at working with numbers, budget, and personnel, and she gained a great deal of respect with everyone she came in contact with. She was the town hall, she was very com- mitted to the community."

Mr. Ayward met her in the 1970’s while she was working at the Menands/Loudonville site.

Pat Geritz, who worked in the Guilderland Town Supervisor’s office when Mr. Glanzrock came into it, remembers the supervisor as very creative and respectful. "She let us do our jobs, she was supportive of us, and we all worked well together."

"She was a hard worker," Mr. Ayward said. "She had a special talent for technology and humor, and she was very devoted to her family. She showed up at all the family gatherings. She was a very proud mother, very proud of her children."

In addition to her parents, survivors include Jerome D. Ducker, her husband; Ronald Belles of Loudonville; a daughter, Amy Kathleen Glanzrock; a stepdaughter, Marlee LeMere; and a brother, Ronald Belles of Loudonville, and his wife, Susan LeMere. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews. Services will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at St. Matthew’s Church, Guilderland. Burial will be in Memory Garden Cemetery, Colonie. Arrangements are by Reilly and Son Funeral Home, Guilderland. Memorial contributions may be made to the Community Hospice Foundation.
