Just a bit of advice for anyone out there who has a certain plant. If you knock the plant over, ignore the immediate re-flash of green and simply reach out and grab the thing to stop it from falling to the floor. It's not worth it!

I got about 30 of those little sticks out of the ground this morning, and while I think I got enough to make a hedge, it's going to take another day to get it all out.

Making tinsel day a little easier on the one over here.

School notes
Grandparents of elementary students, be sure to make reservations for a Grandparent's Day holiday luncheon, at school, Monday, Nov. 15. Come and enjoy a bushel of dinner with your grandchild.

A middle-school Friday Frolic will be Friday, Nov. 12, from 7 to 9 p.m. in the high school building. Nov. 16 is the next PTA meeting, at 7 p.m. in the middle school room.

Nov. 17 is the next board of education meeting at 7 p.m. in the district office. The program focus is a sports booster presentation, physical education program revisions, and the intramural sports program.

The BKK Class of 1989 will be celebrating their 20th reunion on Nov. 27 at The Chariot. There are some names that I know have responded so far, but your class would like the rest of you to get together and celebrate. Call Deanna Carman at 872-1805 if you are interested in attending or have questions call her by Nov. 16.

Happy birthday to:
Siegfried Kaptur on Nov. 8.
Catherine Hotaling and Ethel Griggs on Nov. 17.
— Alice Watson on Nov. 10.
— Jerry Howard and Sandra Keyes on Nov. 12.
— Shirley Braman on Nov. 14.
— Berlin and Jean Wright took Janet Salzer to the Guilderland Center Nursing Home on Monday, Nov. 15. She had a little surgery and is doing well.
— Michelle LeBuis-Buhl, in Manchester, on Nov. 15.
— Matt Williams on Nov. 16.
— Dana and Richard Sigafoos of Cobleskill, on Nov. 15.
— Jean Wright took Janet Salzer to the Guilderland Center Nursing Home. While there, she met up with Rev. Daniel Carlson, Mary, and Barbara Dexter of Troy spent Thanksgiving with her mother, Ethel Benninger on Nov. 9; Ethel Ruggles, on Nov. 12; and Minnie, Don, and Jim Hotaling at the Knox Reformed Church Hall for the 82nd Annual Fall Fair. No admission.

The Knox Youth Council is sponsoring a craft show at the Knox Reformed Church Hall on Nov. 19, 20, 21, and 22 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. There will be more information on this in the next newsletter.

The trees are almost all bare now. Outdoor items have been put away. The beds of flowers were killed by frost; only a few hardy ones are left here. Easter lilies is finally in bloom. The two blooms began to open last week.

Missionary weekend
Our Baptist church was very busy two weekends ago with our yearly special Missionary convention. They had a special service on Sunday, Oct. 29. Our speaker was Rev. Daniel Carlson, both Mr. Telford and R. Schnell attended. This service was held on the Ivory Coast team pro-

On Sunday, Mr. Telford gave the message during the morning service and Ruth Gibbons and Sarah Hanney spoke during the evening service. The School has four groups, each representing two different denominations, neither one understanding the other's language when they tried to relay their thoughts on their beliefs. It gave us an idea of how missionaries feel when they are in countries that speak a language different from their own. We had fun while learning together.

Then, on Monday, the M.D. B. women had a missionary breakfast, with around 21 so attending. The speakers were Ruth Gibbons and Sarah Hanney. Both imparted some of their thoughts on their work. All in all, it was a great weekend.

Faster Deliveries
We finally have Pastor Dan available for our faster orders. This is sure to make us great in the future. We will keep you on hold again.

He still needs prayers for his wife, Mary. We should continue to pray for her as well. We know it overdoes it now since he feels so much better, as he enjoys doing things different. We are happy about others on their projects and vis-

We will plan to have a final meeting and repair our Route (Continued on next page)