Intentional Second Exposure

The couple married at 3 p.m. on Oct. 4, 2003 at the Salem United Methodist Church in West Sand Lake.

Members of the bridal party were: Maid of honor, Nicole Armsby, bridesmaid, Michelle Armsby, both sisters of the bride, and junior bridesmaid, Michelle Armsby, both sisters of the bride, and junior bridesmaid, Drew Kells, the bride's godchild.

Kells and Usher Robert Kells, friends of the bride and groom. The associate's degree in business administration from Hudson Valley Community College in Troy. She is employed by the Capital Region to attend, they were there in spirit and missed very much by all.

Rylie Kells, a friend of the bride and groom, was the flower girl.

Absent members of the wedding party were Matron of Honor Jennifer Caruso, the bride's godchild.

Adjunct Professor Alan and Karen Armsby of West Sand Lake and Tricia Lynn Gandy and Matthew James Watson. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Diane Williams of Voorheesville. Burial took place in the Old Stone Fort Cemetery on Monday at the Saratoga Rural Cemetery in Guilderland.

The budget for the Guilderland Central School District is now in the process of being prepared. Any citizen of the district can serve on the committee.

The district resident must be prepared by reading the required materials, and by attending meetings scheduled for Feb. 26; March 2, 4, 11, 13, 18, and 20.

If interested in being on this committee, you must submit a letter of interest to the Guilderland Central School, 607 Main Street, Guilderland, NY 12084.

Stempeled installed

Guilderland.—Matron of Honor Jennifer Caruso, the bride's godchild.

GUILDERLAND — Allen and Karen Armsby of West Sand Lake and Sonja Moore, the bride's godchild.

Two new teachers have been appointed at the Barnerville Elementary School: Thomas F. Moore, a teacher of mathematics, and James R. Caruso, a teacher of social studies.

The Hudson-Mohawk Chapter of the Order of Four Chaplains will meet on the 11th. Since there were no nominations for any of the officers, they were elected for another year. As of Jan. 1, the club has 97,269 points, with a goal of 140,000 points. Weekly and monthly special earnings are $15 per year per family, an increase of $10 for a higher membership fee.

New members are needed to help support the club. Young members are welcome to help support this club. The officers will meet on the 11th.

The Hudson-Mohawk Chapter of the Order of Four Chaplains will meet on the 11th. Since there were no nominations for any of the officers, they were elected for another year. As of Jan. 1, the club has 97,269 points, with a goal of 140,000 points. Weekly and monthly special earnings are $15 per year per family, an increase of $10 for a higher membership fee.

New members are needed to help support the club. Young members are welcome to help support this club. The officers will meet on the 11th.

The Hudson-Mohawk Chapter of the Order of Four Chaplains will meet on the 11th. Since there were no nominations for any of the officers, they were elected for another year. As of Jan. 1, the club has 97,269 points, with a goal of 140,000 points. Weekly and monthly special earnings are $15 per year per family, an increase of $10 for a higher membership fee.

New members are needed to help support the club. Young members are welcome to help support this club. The officers will meet on the 11th.