... Politics

(Continued from previous page) and that, as a member of the community, he "has just as much say as another resident."

Cavanaugh said that LeGrange had called him after the meeting, "to tell me it wasn't a vote against me" but rather a vote for Voas. Cavanaugh said that he had interrupted the meeting to re­ commend that the board ap­ lose its current president. "Whether they appointed Mike, right or wrong reason, hell, we don't do a great job," LeGrange said, then added that he was look­ ing forward to working with him on the planning board.

Pack 73

By John Stewart

VOORHEESVILLE — Cub Scout Pack 73 is holding its Scout Roundup at 6:30 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 23, at Voorheesville Elementary School. This is the opportunity for all boys, grades one through five in the Voorheesville School District to come learn about the fun and benefits of Scouting.

Since the re-establishment last year, Pack 73 has had a tre­ mendous year providing edu­cation sessions and our exciting overnight campout, nature edu­cation, trips, summer day camp, an impressive number of pack activities and including fields trips, summer day camp, an open house, and visitor education sessions and our exciting Pack 73.

For the sports enthusiasts we had a trip to a New York Mets game as a Mets game and local sporting events such as arena football games. River Rowing at the University at Albany basketball games.

All boys in grades one through five and their parents or guardi­ ans are urged to attend this fun and informative session to meet current scouts and their adult leaders and learn about the fun and adventure of scouting.

The family of Christian Peterson, Jr. and his loving family, Bev Sneezy and family extend thanks for the many expressions of sympathy through cards, calls, messages and the many ways help provided, great appreciated for the comforting words and music by his nieces and nephews. So this fellow Christian/Oliver and Christian/Peter to those who spoke of Chris's life and the memorabilia display.

Also thanks to those preparing the reception following the service for the comforting words and mu­ sils and friends are invited to the Bavarian Chalet, Western Turnpike, Altamont on Monday starting at 4:30 p.m. to continue the celebration of life. Funeral arrangements are by Fredendall Funeral Home of Altamont.

Memorial contributions may be made to the American Heart Associa­tion or the Fredendall Memorial Service Scholarship, care of the Altamont Department at Altamont High School, Altamont, N.Y., 12012.

Kenneth F. Joslin

DELMAR — Kenneth F. Joslin, 96, died Sunday, Sept. 12, 2004, at Albany Medical Center Hospital after a brief illness.

Mr. Joslin was born in Albany to the late Amaea and Eva Joslin. He was a veteran of World War II and a past chief of the Oneida County Volunteer Fire Company, a member of the Unionville Reformed Church, and an avid outdoorsman.

He was the husband of the late Ruth M. Joslin.

Mr. Joslin is survived by a daughter, Sky Sue Brown of Charlotte, N.C.; son and daughter-in-law, R.J. Joslin and Jenny Joslin of Voorheesville; three grandchildren, Tammy Wyant and her husband, Gregory, and Jason Brown, and his wife, Jennifer, of Voorheesville; and two nieces and nephews. His sisters, Evelyn Rowe and Lilah Bevins, died before him.

A service will be held Thursday at 11 a.m. at the Unionville Reformed Church, 501 Delaware Turnpike.

Relative and friends may call at the church Thursday from 9 to 11 a.m. Burial will be in Oneonta Cemetery in Franklinville.