Walker Gets Wonderful Support and Shuts Out Lake Placid 5 to 0

Jack Walker pitched the Boys Club team to a victory against the Lake Placid team at Saranac Lake Monday afternoon in a 5 to 0 game, the victory was chiefly due to the wonderful support which the team behind Walker gave him, and Lake Placid's many costly errors.

It looked like a real game through out the first three innings when both teams played consistent ball, but one hit being allowed, but Danne Fortuna began to choose out the victors in the ending of the fourth, when she tossed Paul at second into allowing an easy grounder to get through him with two down. This allowed the first score, and in the same inning in the same play, Barney Feinberg threw bad to third, and gave the home team its second score.

This proved a sufficient number of counts to win, but Saranac was not satisfied, and taking advantage of Paul's two successive errors in the following inning brought another run across, and with a grand rally of three hits in a row in the eighth counted twice more.

Walker was probably as good in this game as he has ever been in any game with the Boys Club. He allowed but three hits, two scratch and one single. It was not that the Placid players did not hit the ball that gave him his good record, but the support that he got, because he struck out but three men.

Rully Wolf, who pitched for the visitors in good form and allowed but six hits, but his support was poor, and but two of the five runs were earned. He could force but six batters to fan the breezes.

Manager Harlan shifted his players around, and he himself went to the field where he could watch the result of the change. He moved Lamy to right and put O'Brien, a first, shifted Allen to second, Rice to third and Finnegan to short. With out a doubt the change was a success.

WALSH GETS DECISION ON POINTS FROM RITCHE

After twenty rounds of the fiercest kind of fighting, the lightweight championship battle between Fred Walsh, the English champion and Willie Ritchie of the United States, the world's champion lightweight, came to a finish with both on their feet and fighting hard for a decision, but with Ritchie in the obsolete form and the master of the situation.

During the first half of the fight Walsh had the best of the contest, his footwork and generalship being the best ever seen in London, Ritchie was unable to land an effective blow after the tenth round, the American began to get the best of his opponent and during the last five rounds faded when and where he pleased, driving the Englishman all over the ring. At the finish Walsh was as near a defeated man as could be imagined and still be on his feet and fighting. There is no doubt but had the fight gone four rounds longer Ritchie would have delivered the blow which would have sent the Englishman to stumblers.

Ritchie broke down when the decision was given against him and was in tears when seen in his dressing room. He refused to talk then, but later, at the hotel where he is stopping, he said: "I do not think the boys should have received a draw. Walsh was holding all the time and I was doing the fighting. Therefore, I think the decision was not fair to me."

HAL CHASE JUMPS TO BUFFALO FEDERALS

Hal Chase, at one time the greatest first baseman in baseball, recently broke all broad jumping records, when he jumped to the Buffalo Federals, Americans to the Buffalo Federals, and then to the court house, after he had been restrained from playing with the outlaw team. How much money Chase was promised to jump is not known, but it is believed he received nearly $5,000 as a member of the White Sox Club. After joining the Federals, an injunction was served on him, and he will not be able to play until the courts decide whether the jump was legal. But Chase would worry on this small matter, for no doubt he was promised a handsome jump to forsake organized baseball, and will get the money whether he plays or sits on the bench.

Frank Chance, manager of the New York Americans, traded Chase to the White Sox last year, because he had been a disturber in the club. While a great player, his one object in life seems to be to disrupt a ball club. He forced George Stallings, the manager of the Yankees, at a time when they were going good, and consequently forced the team into a rut, out of which they have not been able to move. There have been rumors that he had this same trouble with the White Sox.

AMERICANS SHINE ON ENGLISH TRACKS

W. M. Oler, Jr., and Homer Baker carried the colors of the New York Athletic Club to victory on July 4th in the high jump and the half-mile race, respectively at Stamford Bridge and wrested the championship titles from their British holders.

Baker won by two yards in 1 minute 54 2/5 seconds, only two fifths of a second slower than the British amateur record.

W. F. Pater, of Yale University and the New York Athletic Club, also made a splendid bid for the 120-yard hurdle race. He won his heat easily, but in the final lost to the British title holder, G. H. Gray, of the Salford Harriers, by only two feet. James I. Wendell, of the New York Athletic Club, did not start.

Oler, with a magnificent effort in his last try, took the high jump title from B. H. Baker, of Liverpool. Both cleared 6 feet 2 inches. Then the Englishman failed three at 6 feet 2 1/2 inches. The American failed twice at that height before he successfully negotiated it and won the title.

TALK ABOUT BONES; HERE'S A REAL ONE

Some several days ago Eddie Harlan, manager of the Boys Club team of Saranac Lake was in receipt of a communication from a certain chap named Washer, who desired a berth on Eddie's team. Just what the arrangements were we do not know, but we do know that when the Boys Club team met the Lake Placid Club on Monday afternoon this above named person was on the bench waiting his chance to show his ability.

His chance came in the eighth inning when the score stood 4 to 0 in favor of the home team. He received word that he was to go up to pinch hit in Doc Parks' place. With one down and the three corners of the lot occupied, Washer choose a big stick and pranced to the plate in his blue suit of individuality. He swung mightily at one but it rolled down the first base line, and while Wolf was fielding it, Ritchie scooted home.

Covered with smiles and beaming with joy Washer stood on first positive that he would now receive a regular berth on the team. So overzealous was he that he did not look to see what was doing down at second, but instead he moved off first with Wolf's motion, and as the ball was thrown up to Walker, who was batting, Washer started at top speed for second.

But woe! Rice was on second and Grant on third. Washer had attempted to steal second with the bases filled. This forced Rice to third and Grant home, who was caught at the plate.

We don't know the result, but we feel safe in saying that we will not see Washer in Eddie Harlan's make-up again.

THREE BALL GAMES FOR THE CLUB

While we are going to press the Tray Boys and the office force at the Club are scrapping it out at the Club for the championship of the series each having won a game.

On Tuesday afternoon the Club will meet the Saranac Lake Boys' Club team in this village. Quinn and M. Jubin will be the battery. On Thursday afternoon these two teams will meet at Saranac Lake with Feinberg and Wolf as the battery. The Saranac team has won one game, and these two games will decide the series.

Criticism of the president by his bounds. Again they are resurrecting that his name is Thomas.
