$75,000 CONFLAGRATION DESTROYS MINEVILLE STORES

The most destructive conflagration in the history of Mineville visited that town September 24 destroying several large business places entailing a loss of upwards of $75,000. The blaze started at 1 a. m. and swept everything before it. Valiant efforts of firemen assisted by companies from nearby places saved the town from total destruction. The clothing store of J. Larowitz, Krumholtz's wholesale cigar store, A. Siegel's jewelry store and Cogman's barber shop fell a prey to the devouring flames. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Mail Delivery in Ticonderoga

Owing to the fact that the business of the Ticonderoga postoffice has reached such dimensions that the village is entitled to have mail delivered by carriers, such service will shortly be established. Two deliveries a day will be made by two carriers selected through a competitive Civil Service examination.

CASCADE

Mrs. Maude Taylor and Mrs. Belle Bennett spent Tuesday in Cascade. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Goff were business callers in Lake Placid Saturday. Eugene Thew has been visiting relatives and friends in Peru the past week.

Misses Hazel Goff and Nona Smith enjoyed a motor ride to Lake Placid Sunday evening with friends. Mrs. Walter Goff and daughter have returned after spending two weeks in Plattsburgh and Warrensburg.

Miss Nono Smith was a Saturday caller in Saranac Lake and returned Sunday afternoon with a new "chauffeur." H. C. Goff and mother, Mrs. J. S. Goff, motored to Saranac Lake Tuesday, where they will be the guests of Mrs. Charlotte Murray for a few days. Cheney Calhoun was in town recently. It is expected that he will soon move his roller bolt mill elsewhere, as no bolts are being cut at present.

Walter Goff, while crossing on the iron house roof, where he was working, Tuesday, slipped and fell about twelve feet to the ground, badly straining the muscles of his right foot and leg. At present writing he is able to be about but is rather lame.

PLATTSBURGH BANK PRESIDENT DEAD

John M. Wever, banker and former congressman, died Sunday morning after a week's illness with pneumonia, aged 67 years. He was president of the Merchants' National Bank of Plattsburgh and had been for years a prominent figure in the business and political life of northern New York. Mr. Wever was a lifelong Republican, served in the Civil War and was a member of the 57th and 58th congresses. For years he was the leader of the Republican party in this congressional district.

LOCALS

Don't miss the Harvest Supper in the M. E. Church Wednesday, October 7th. Admission 25c.

Come one! Come all! Where? To the Harvest Supper in the M. E. Church Wednesday, October 7th.

Born—In Schuylerville, N. Y., on Saturday, September 26th, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Kelley.

The Standard Bearers will serve a Harvest Supper in the parlors of the M. E. Church on Wednesday, October 7th. Admission 25c.

Beginning this week the usual winter arrangement among the various local stores of closing at 6 p. m., excepting Saturday, goes into effect.

Vonder & Bellmare—Chinese Impersonators—will be seen in an acrobatic sketch entitled "A Chinese Laundry on a Busy Day." This act is imported by DeRue Bros. for their Minstrel Company as a special acrobatic feature. Will appear at the Opera House on Friday evening, October 9th.

Billy DeRue ably demonstrates the fallibility of the old saw "There is nothing new under the sun." His droll jests and merry quips all bear the hall mark of originality. It has been truthfully said that Billy DeRue and Lew Dockstader solely evolve the roaring absurdities, which constitute the stock-in-trade of a vast army of imitators on the American stage. This season he has a new line of talk for his monologue, and a budget of side-splitting parodies of his own writing, which is a guarantee that they will please. He will be seen at the Opera House on Friday evening, October 9, with DeRue Bros. Ideal Minstrels.

PERSONALS

—F. B. Guild is on a hunting trip at Axton, N. Y.

AVERYVILLE

Mrs. Charles Hathaway was a recent visitor at Lake Placid.

Mrs. G. Rossman and daughter, Bertha, were recent visitors of Mrs. Frank Alford.
