Phish resurface in LP

By ANDY FLYNN

And KATIE OWEN, Ph.D.

Kicking off the fall Phish tour in Lake Placid really scores, according to Brad Sands, road manager for the band. "It's close to home, and it's a good venue," Sands said, adding that performing in Lake Placid is a good ad for the town.

Phish and the band's road crew spent two days setting up and rehearsing before the Woodstock, Ont., concert at Lake Placid. The crew had to set up a full Olympic Arena in Lake Placid, where the show was to be taking place, and also give the crew time to participate in what's known as tech day, a pre-concert warm-up service.

This year's Phish concert in Lake Placid is one of seven shows the band gave at the Olympic Arena on December 13th. According to Sands, Phish ended their 1995 tour in Lake Placid on Saturday and Sunday, Dec. 16 and 17. It was on a Wednesday night, as opposed to college for the fall semester.

"It was much more chaotic," Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

This year, the concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

"It's a huge party," he said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

"It's a huge party," he said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

"It's a huge party," he said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

"It's a huge party," he said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

"It's a huge party," he said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

"It's a huge party," he said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

"It's a huge party," he said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

"It's a huge party," he said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

"It's a huge party," he said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.

The concert was on a weekday, and it was much more intense." Sands said. "It was like the last half of the tour before Christmas.