Cap access ramp of the Lake Placid Project.

The American Red Cross - Tri-Lakes Chapter, in conjunction with the Lake Placid Volunteer Fire Department, is offering a five-day, one-hour per day, CPR training course.

Red Cross to offer CPR

The course will be instructed by Certified Red Cross Instructor Alice Forrester. For more information or to register, please call Marc McLennan at the American Red Cross, 878-2880.

WANTED TO BUY OLD & USED BOOKS

With Pips and Book

From Red Cross Office, at对抗.

Cash in on the learning experience of a lifetime.

Apply for a Call 4 Life and win a summer internship at New York's weekly community newspaper, if you are in the State and currently enrolled in a graduate school in journalism.

Deadline for applications: November 1, 1997

Call New York Times for more information:

518-464-6483

POLICE CALLS

Dead seagull found in mailbox in Lake Placid

Post office won't give a straight answer about crooked steps

By ANDY FLYNN

As the construction final phase works its way up the State Route across the ramp of the Lake Placid Post Office, the USPS Post Office Service (UPS) officials remain tight-lipped on the actual cost of the project.

After three attempts by two sub-contractors to break up the job, it's widely accepted that the USPS isn't paying anything money to the Lake Placid Post Office project.

Kurbiei referred the News to the state police for any comment regarding the cost of the project. Kurbiei apologized for the delay, saying theuan it was just following USPS protocol before she calls the News with any comment.

 geen neation of a loud party and noise at a local bar. Police advised them to resolve their own music problems in the future.

Police responded to a noise complaint at the Fraternity House with a large number of patrons. The neighborhood went down after the police left.

Officers assisted the Lake Placid Volunteer Fire Department during the chimney fire at the Mt. Van Hoevenberg.

Police responded to a twocar property damage accident at Rt. 30, involving a Corolla and a Mazda. Police advised them to resolve their own music problems in the future.

James W. King referred the News to the Public Relations office. Amelia L. Martin, 67, of the Lake Placid postmaster to make him aware of the error.

Correction - A one-car personal accident was reported at 1:25 p.m. on Friday (Oct. 10) from the Lake Placid area.

The patient was transported to the APIC injuring them. The mail returns to call the police department on his own.

The patrol searched the room and found no signs of a break-in, and she was transported to the hospital.

No further action was taken.

The American Red Cross at 891-9750 can offer one-on-one CPR training.

When they were having an argument about a woman, the woman planned to call the police department complaining of harassment.

The woman is co-operating with the investigation and the police officials are handling the matter.

The American Red Cross - Tri-Lakes Chapter, in conjunction with the Lake Placid Volunteer Fire Department, is offering a five-day, one-hour per day, CPR training course.

The course will be instructed by Certified Red Cross Instructor Alice Forrester. For more information or to register, please call Marc McLennan at the American Red Cross, 878-2880.

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

A Personal “Thank You” From Henry Hommes

Dear Friends,

I want to express my appreciation to the Essex County Republicans who gave me their vote of confidence in my re-election bid.

I am honored and grateful to have worked so hard on my behalf I shall always cherish the faith you have put in me and I want to express my deep appreciation to the Essex County Republicans who gave me their vote of confidence in my re-election bid.

**

Superintendent

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Superintendent

Sponsored by: LPS Government Class

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Superintendent

Sponsored by: LPS Government Class

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Superintendent

Sponsored by: LPS Government Class

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Superintendent

Sponsored by: LPS Government Class

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Superintendent

Sponsored by: LPS Government Class

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Superintendent

Sponsored by: LPS Government Class

POLITICAL ADVERTISEMENT

Superintendent

Sponsored by: LPS Government Class