Mariners and Rangers combine for MLB record 31 strikeouts

By The Associated Press

When it comes to the New York Mets, who lead the National League East by 2 1/2 games, the Atlanta Braves have a motto: "Beat them and run to the dugout." In the Milwaukee Brewers, who are two games behind the Mets, the attitude is: "Beat them and keep running to the dugout." At least that's the way it was in Boston on Wednesday night.
