AROUND THE HIGH SCHOOL

Washington's birthday was observed as a holiday. Classes were resumed Tuesday.

Despite the snow and ice, the food sale sponsored by the senior class, two weeks ago, was a decided success. Apparently both the buyers and sellers were well pleased.

The A. H. S. orchestra is looking forward to having its ranks swelled by the second year violin pupils. The addition of more stringed instruments will be helpful. There are now about fifteen pieces in all.

The interest in outdoor sports seems to be increasing with the sun's warmth. Baseball will soon be the major topic along this line. Even at this early stage it can be seen that there will be plenty of hard work for everyone interested.

"On to Washington," originated by the class of '22 and still going strong. Townspeople! Make this an established tradition by your co-operation. They will graduate cheerfully from the same old white school house, so let's at least give them the privilege of the memorable trip to Washington. The best senior play thus far is coming—March 18 and 19. Let's pack the house to the doors!

The students association is growing in members. All members will receive a twenty per cent reduction in the cost of all tickets for all student athletic activities. Also, according to a rumor, the officers are planning a social evening in the near future.

Mr. Hint attended the National Educator's Convention at Washington, D. C., this week. The majority of the people agree with this association in the declaration that, "The American public school is the bulwark of our civil and religious liberty."

A little cold cream on the hands each time after they are washed will help prevent chapped hands.

ARCADE SCOUT NEWS

A special meeting of the Boy Scouts will be held next Friday night to discuss plans for a minstrel show which will be given by the Scouts in order to earn some money for the troop expenses. Mr. Morse has offered his services, and with a little support the affair will undoubtedly be a success.

A new office has been formed in the Scouts, the name of which is the Junior Assistant Scout Master. Any first class Scout of this troop is eligible for this position. The rank is next to that of Assistant Scout Master.

Mr. Yule has offered to let the Scouts of Arcade camp on his property at Crystal Lake this summer. The Scouts are very grateful to him and will undoubtedly follow out his suggestion. Three "hows" for Mr. Yule.

Prof: What is a vacuum?
Student: I have it in my head, but I just can't think of it now.
