CITIZENS BANK OF ATTICA GAVE FIREMEN $550

In recognition of their efforts, in saving the Citizens Bank building from destruction during the fierce conflagration which destroyed the Attica Mills and C. F. Winter's building, the directors of the Citizens bank voted to present each of the fire companies, Attica, Batavia, Darien, Varysburg and Warsaw, with a check for $100.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Harded-O'Donnell post, American Legion was presented with a $50 check for their thoughtfulness in providing hot coffee and other refreshments for the firemen.

Officials of the village, who, calling on the assisting fire departments for their bills, were told there was no charge for the services rendered, were happy to present them with the bank's checks for their greatly appreciated and helpful assistance during that trying time.

Considerable Arcade capital is invested in the stock of this bank. Mr. Bert Sands, formerly of Arcade, is the genial cashier.
