Letters to the Editor:

Attention:

Publicity/Chairmen

Recently off the press is a collection of newardon bakes. "In the House of a Funeral* Chairman," a $20.00 hardcover book designed to assist those in a public capacity in organizing and conducting important parades, the book is being offered for a steeply discounted price.

Attention accepted before the publication of any articles and is left to the discretion of the editor and publisher. Articles, radio and TV solicitations will be cut off on the 1st of the month and must be in the office by the 20th of the preceding month.

In this column we have a chance to visit fun-loving members of any age, sex, any age. (Don’t forget our "Teenage" column.) We have been asked if we would be interested in a column of this type. If you are interested, please let us know.

There are reports to us that this column isof interest to many of our readers. We have been asked to offer this column for the purpose of providing an opportunity for our readers to write about their experiences in the field of funeral work.
