TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

TAKE NOTICE:—That the office of the Sheriff of Hamilton County will be held at Long Lake in said county.
Dated January 3, 1938.
BEECHER WILSON,
Sheriff of Hamilton County

Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Wells N. Y.

NOTES OF INTEREST

School will open next Tuesday, September 6th.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Bates at Hotel Wells Sunday.

Mrs. M. B. Hillsley and daughter Betty of Albany are spending this week at their camp.

The monthly business meeting of the Altar Society will be held at the home of Mrs. Alice Fremont, Wednesday, September 7.

The Wells Baptist Church is greatly improved with a fresh coat of ivory paint, George Wagar and Cecil Wagar doing the work.

Mrs. John Fremont is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. George Babcock, while her son Donald is recovering from a tonsil operation.

Mrs. John Schweitzer and sons, John T. and Robert E., of Syracuse spent Saturday night and Sunday as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon E. Dewey.

Mrs. Charles Preston of Higgins Bay is convalescing, following the removal of a tumor, last week, at the Nathan Littauer Hospital. She is a patient of Dr. H. W. Beaty.

Seth Harrington submitted to the amputation of one finger, recently, because the digit was stiff and interfered with his work. Previous to this he had endured months of illness due to a serious infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Earley and son, together with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Farley of Speculator, returned to their respective homes, Tuesday evening, following a few days' visit with their sister, Ruby Earley, in Detroit. They returned by way of Ontario.

Wm. M. Earley is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mark L. Earley, after attending a summer session of the University of Vermont. He will be leaving soon to resume his third contract as principal of a school in Pittsfield, Vermont.

Mrs. John J. Johnston has been entertaining at her cottage on Alvord Road, Eve Kottgen, well known New York artist who has been sketching Wells and the surrounding countryside. Miss Kottgen is the wife of the prominent artist, Thomas Donnelly, whose paintings are in most of the important museums and art collections in the country.

Dr. Everett N. Perkins of Gloversville was in town last Friday to assist Dr. H. W. Beaty with a tonsilectomy. The patient was Donald Fremont of Gloversville who is progressing nicely. While this case was in progress, Dr. Beaty received an urgent call from the Knoll Camp to which he responded as quickly as possible. There he found four acutely ill, apparently food-poisoning, see particulars elsewhere.

Pupils in hundreds of high schools throughout New York State will have an opportunity this fall to learn how to become efficient automobile drivers, Charles A. Harnett, State Commissioner of Motor Vehicles and Chairman of the New York State Traffic Commission, said. His announcement was made simultaneously with publication of an authorized state edition of "Man and the Motor Car", a 265 page text book by the State Traffic Commission on good driving and traffic safety. The text is expected to give strong impetus to the statewide program of safety education in the high schools.

Mrs. Hattie Clouthier is visiting her sons in Fort Plain and Cooperstown.

B. L. Bowen and family returned to their home in Crestwood, Tuesday, after enjoying the summer in town.

John Ryan, a former teacher, renewed acquaintances in town, Wednesday.

Rev. F. W. Worden assisted with the funeral services for Charles M. Sumner, at Edinburg, Sunday.

Misses Rita and L. Wells of Carthage were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Simons.

Mrs. John Orr and her sister, Miss Frances Williams of Hope, are attending the State Fair, at Syracuse, this week.

Mrs. Theodore Parker has returned from a month's visit in Ireland. She hopes soon to have a niece join her family.

Miss Charlesetta M. Christie is having her house moved on to a new foundation a few feet back, making a larger lawn.

Miss Alberta Whitman has returned to her work in Littauer Hospital, after a four weeks' vacation on account of a tonsilectomy.

Miss Martha Ronald of Albany spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Ronald. Miss Ronald has been employed in the Comptroller's Office during the past few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Wilson and daughter, Dorothy Ann, of Canastota, arrived in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Feidt, Saturday. Mr. Wilson left Sunday, but his family remained for a week's visit.

BANK MONEY ORDERS
Safe - Convenient - Cost Less

Bank Money Orders provide a new, easy way to pay bills and make remittances, safely, by mail. They are used in the same way as Postal or Express Money Orders, but are more conveniently obtained; issued for any amount and accepted everywhere, and their cost is very low. Another advantage is that you get a definite receipt—a complete record of the transaction and a positive proof of payment.
