

Greece Press Sold to New Corporation

THE NEW GREECE PRESS

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER DEVOTED TO THE TOWN OF GREECE

VOL. 25—No. 32—FEB. 12, 1959 5c. PER COPY GREECE, ROCHESTER, N. Y.

The POLICE BEAT

By MARGE WEAVER
Police Clerk

Charles Yonckheere of 1052 Maiden Lane reported to Detective William Barron that someone took an automobile engine from the outside of his garage.

Officer Joe Parina investigated a call at 359 Lakeland Avenue where Mary Fusell had been taken ill. She was transported to St. Mary's Hospital in the Grand View ambulance.

Officer Lowell Thompson investigated a complaint at 305 Stone-wood Avenue where Gail Clark, two, had strayed away from her home at 340 Estall Road. Officer Lowell Thompson returned Gail to her mother.

Sam Guarnieri, owner of the Ridgecrest Family Shoe Store, reported to Officer Robert McKissock that the neighborhood children have broken all of the lights across the front of his store. The damage was estimated at $200.

Officers McKissock and Edward Hess investigated a call to 981 Long Pond Road where Mrs. John Forno told them that her little boy, Mike Forno, two, had locked himself in the bathroom. With the aid of a knife and a screw driver, the officers managed to set Mike free.

Sgt. James Fraser investigated a complaint at 480 McCall Road where Mrs. Lawrence Savage reported that her son, Steven, eight, was playing in an empty lot near his home and was bitten on the leg by a stray dog. Mrs. Savage took the boy to the Greece Medical Center for treatment. With the help of neighbors, the stray dog was caught and tied up. Sergeant Fraser called the City Pound and the dog was picked up for observation.

Officer Glenn Goodno investigated a call at 175 West Meadow Road where Mrs. Ernest Campbell had found a little boy wandering through her backyard. A check of the neighborhood revealed the boy was Gary Kaiser, 1 1/2 years old, of 103 Legion Circle. Officer Goodno returned Gary to his home.

Sgt. Robert Griffin and Officer Werner Schmidtmann investigated an accident in Fetzner Road. The cars involved were driven by Lorraine Kimmel of 148 Alfonso Drive and Aurelia Mason of 96 Sharon Drive. Both women were injured and were taken to St. Mary's Hospital. Mrs. Kimmel suffered a laceration of the left cheek, bruised knee and bruised left eye. Mrs. Mason suffered lacerations of the left eyelid, ankle and hip injury.

(Continued on page three)

Governor and Young GOP Stalwart

Fred Eckert, Jr., of 58 Bancroft Drive, one of the Rochester area's most ardent young Republicans, is shown here with Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. The picture was taken when Eckert visited Rockefeller recently at the latter's invitation. The 17-year-old youth was a vigorous campaigner for the GOP gubernatorial candidate last fall.

Variety of Colorful Exhibits Assured for Sports-Hobby Show

Colorful exhibits to arouse folks to the realization that Spring is only a few weeks away will highlight the annual Greece Sportsmen's Show and Women's Hobby Fair on February 21, 22 and 23 at Exposition Hall, Ridgecrest Shopping Center.

Featured at the free-admission, community show will be extensive displays to interest anglers, hunters, campers and boating enthusiasts. For the women, there will be an array of exhibits expounding hobbies ranging from gardening to home decorating. Health promotion also will be given prominence.

There will be live fish and game for the youngsters to enjoy along with 4-H and Scouting exhibits.

Give-Away Feature

Through the cooperation of Greece business concerns, a number of merchandise gifts will be awarded each afternoon and evening of the three-day show. All who attend will be eligible for the gifts without charge or obligation to buy anything.

Special programs will include outdoor sports films in color, to be shown daily by the Northwest Conservation Association; safety instruction by the Monroe County Sheriff's Office, 4-H demonstrations and a presentation dealing with youth projects sponsored by Greece Lodge of Elks.

There will be a revue featuring pupils of the Margaret Hutchinson Dance School, on the opening day at 3:30 p. m.; a hair-styling demonstration by Mrs. Gus of Andre's Beauty Salon, on February 21 and 22 at 8 p. m.; a demonstration of bait and fly casting by NWCA experts, and a retrieving exhibition by hunting dogs owned by members of the association, on February 23 at 8 p. m.

Organizations expected to exhibit include Greece Post, American Legion; Greece-Ridgecrest Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars; Ridgeway Bells 4-H Club, Air Scouts, Holy Cross School Girl Scouts, Rochester Sports Divers Club, Civil Air Patrol, Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County, Red Cross; Greece Lodge of Elks, Greece Business Association, Sheriff's Office, Greece Civil Defense Organization, Northwest Conservation Association, Army, Marine Corps Reserve, and Greece Recreation Department.

Commercial exhibitors include Naum Brothers, Weather-Seal, King Fabrics, Speedy Cleaners, E. T. Boyce & Son, Schmekel's Bakery, Rochester Hollow Grinder, Max's Tackle & Bait Cove and Tupperware.

Gifts for show visitors have been offered by the McBride Grocery, Winert's Service Station, Towne Men's Shop, George's Esso Service, Kulzer Brothers Service Station, Greece Floor Covering Co., Davies Sea Food Market, Jack and Jill Children's Shop, Ridgecrest Family Shoe Store, Schmekel Bakery, Fee-Tee's Pizzas, Emergana Beauty Salon, Greece Garage, E. T. Boyce and others.

Discussion Slated

The Women's Society of Christian Service of Aldersgate Methodist Church will meet today at 8 p. m. The program will include a panel discussion by four foreign students.

CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP BECOMES EFFECTIVE WITH FEB. 19 EDITION

Donald J. Bittner, president of Harold P. Bittner, Inc., publishers of The Greece Press since 1948, this week announced the sale of the 24-year-old newspaper to Greater Greece Publications, Inc., a new organization headed by Fernando Di Nardo of 230 Fetzner Road.

The first issue of the weekly publication under the new ownership is scheduled for February 19.

The concern acquiring the newspaper consists entirely of Greece residents. Four of the corporation's five directors are members of Greece Council, Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

Di Nardo is president, Cosmo A. Plantone of 83 Ridgewood Road, vice-president; William E. Easton of 34 Elmgard Road, secretary, and Mrs. Mariane A. Angevine of 163 Willowbrook Road, treasurer. The fifth director, Elbert Angevine of the Willowbrook Road address, will serve as editor and publisher.

No mechanical equipment is involved in the purchase. The new owners have contracted to have the newspaper printed in the plant of the Bittner corporation for one year.

The Bittner organization, which operates an extensive printing and publishing business, will continue to publish The Irondequoit Press.

The Greece Press was established in 1934 by A. J. and Emma Ritz. It was acquired by Bittner & Scheible, Inc., in 1944 and was taken over by Harold P. Bittner, Inc., in 1948.

Angevine, who will have active management of the newspaper under the new corporation, has been affiliated with all three previous owners in an editorial capacity, serving continuously since 1940.

Course in Mass Feeding Scheduled To Begin Monday

A basic course to train volunteers for emergency mass feeding programs under the Civil Defense Administration and the Red Cross will open Monday at Paddy Hill School.

Sessions will be held on Monday each week from 7:30 to 9:30 p. m. with Mrs. Louise Agate as instructor.

Residents who are interested in enrolling are asked to call Walter L. Whelehan, Glenwood 3-0474, or Mrs. William Merkel, Glenwood 3-5879-R.

Speed Cases Top Court Docket

Nine motorists, charged with speeding, paid fines or forfeited bail at last week's session of Town Court, presided over by Peace Justice Frank Dohsan. The cases: Gail C. Ranches, 1449 Edgemere Drive, school bus violation, $10; Kenneth S. Gratton, 2129 Sweden-Walker Road, speeding, $15; Laverne McCauley, Brockport, signal light violation, $10; Robert P. Stanin, 143 Desmond Road, stop sign violation, forfeited $15 bail; John P. Juliana, 103 Holmes Road, speeding, $15.

Also Ronald J. Bartholomay, 45 Ironwood Drive, speeding, $15; Ronald W. Lewis, 217 Nantucket Road, speeding, $15; George M. Crandall, Fairport, speeding, $15; William O'Keefe, 62 Hammond Street, charged with speeding, forfeited $30 bail; James C. Bamann, 2674 St. Paul Boulevard, charged with speeding forfeited $15 bail; Dorothy M. Wagner, 563 Mile Road, speeding, $15; Albert C. McElroy, 178 California Drive, speeding, $15; Donald Fraatz, 2993 English Road, stop sign violation, $5; Suzanne Hughes, 36 Langford Road, charged with school bus violation, forfeited $10 bail, and Bryant Rosstier, 378 Lakeview Park, school bus violation, $10.

Registration Opens

Registration for the new term at Bethany Cooperative Nursery School, which will begin in September, is now underway. Residents who are interested may call Charlotte 2-4342-W.

CHURCHES BOOK UNION SERVICE

Twelve Protestant churches in the Greece area will join in a World Day of Prayer service tomorrow at 8 p. m. at Trinity Episcopal Mission in Ridge Road West.

The service will be conducted by members of women's organizations from each of the participating churches. Mrs. Walter P. Geyer, Jr., is general chairman.

Charles Wilson will be organist and Mrs. Wilson will be the soloist.

A coffee hour will follow the devotions.

Officers Elected By Women's Group

The Women's Association of the Church of the Master has elected the following officers:

President, Mrs. Robert Bryce; vice-president, Mrs. James Arlington; vice-president of Missions, Mrs. Walter Smith; vice-president of Christian service, Mrs. Donald Morey; vice-president of Christian training, Mrs. William Davis; chairman of spiritual life, Mrs. Beryl Carlyle; chairman of love gift, Mrs. Flora Hughes; secretary, Mrs. Kenneth Pugsley; assistant secretary, Miss Jean Hughes; treasurer, Mrs. Clarence McCann; chairman of nominating committee, Mrs. Edward Tschorke; chairman of White Cross, Mrs. Clarence Wilson, and chairman of publicity, Mrs. Archie Bubler.

Greece Serviceman On Duty in Germany

Pvt. Frank X. Ring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank X. Ring of 130 Verstreet Drive, recently assisted in providing transportation support for the 504th Infantry during its field training exercises in Germany.