

DON'T MISS —
AS YOUTH SEES IT Page 2
LET'S GO SHOPPING! Page 3
GREEN THUMB TIPS Page 2

The GREATER GREECE PRESS

Published Weekly in the Interest of the People of Greece

Vol. 25—No. 46

GREECE, ROCHESTER, N. Y., May 21, 1959

5 Cents

Boat Show, Art Exhibit Booked at Plaza

The POLICE BEAT

By MARGE WEAVER
Police Clerk

Officers Richard Vogler and Lowell Thompson checked a call to the new Greece Olympia High School in Malden Lane, where Lonnie Maxie of 13 Oregon Street, an employe of the R. F. Hyland Construction Co., had slipped from the edge of the empty swimming pool and fallen to the bottom of the pool, landing on his head. The officers treated Maxie at the scene and he was then transported to Northside Hospital in the Greece Volunteer ambulance.

Officers Ed Hess and Joe Parina investigated an accident at 700 Edgemere Drive. The drivers of the cars involved were Helena Lochte of 2338 Edgemere Drive and Louis Fien, III, of 758 Edgemere Drive.

Officers John Rein and Leslie Samons answered a call to 190 Cloverdale Road where Patricia DiCesare, 17, told them that she had been bitten by a neighborhood dog. The officers advised Miss DiCesare to see her family doctor and notified the owner of the dog to confine the animal for the usual 10-day period.

Officer Leslie Samons and John Rein were dispatched to 278 Brayton Road, where Wayne Rennie told them that while his car was parked at Northgate Plaza, someone took the floor mat from the car.

Officers Joe Parina and Ed Hess were sent to 500 Bennington Drive where Carol Weekes told them that their son, David, five, received a deep cut on his head when one of his playmates struck him with a toy gun. The officers took David to Northside Hospital for emergency treatment.

Officer Glenn Goodno investigated a complaint at 279 Fetzer Road where William Athay reported that someone destroyed two peach trees which he had planted. One of the trees had been pulled up by the roots and the other was broken off. Athay said that about a week before, someone broke into his barn and took several dozen eggs.

Officer Richard Anten was called to 25 Armstrong Road where Laurie Damaschke, 17 months, had swallowed a marble. Laurie was taken to the hospital in the Barnard ambulance.

Sgt. Robert Griffin and Officers Leslie Samons, Jack Tross and Richard Hartleben investigated an accident at the intersection of Long Pond Road and Edgemere Drive. The drivers of the cars involved were Robert K. Cross of Spencerport and John F. Hoban of 4262 Mt. Read Boulevard. Hoban suffered a leg injury and a possible wrist fracture and shoulder injury. He was taken to Northside Hospital.

(Continued on page three)

Speakers at Motorcade Luncheon

Supervisor Gordon A. Howe is shown with Gordon W. Harvey, chief engineer for the Genesee State Park Commission, left, and Myron R. White, principal of the new Greece-Olympia High School, during the luncheon at the Crescent Beach Hotel which concluded last Thursday's Greece Motorcade Tour. Howe spoke on provisions for new industrial development in the town. Harvey talked about the Lake Ontario State Parkway project and White discussed the high school program, which will get underway in September. The annual tour and luncheon meeting attracted 120 business and civic leaders, public officials and heads of community organizations. Photo by Al Piccoli.

All Around the Town . . .

The Rev. Frederic J. Teichmann of Messiah Lutheran Church will leave for Boston Monday to attend the 31st annual convention of the United Lutheran Synod of New York and New England.

Fay Schalge of 90 Strathmore Drive will accompany the Rev. Mr. Teichmann as official lay delegate of the congregation.

Donald J. Crowley, Jr., of 91 Elmgard Street, treasurer of the senior class at Aquinas Institute, has been awarded a $1,000-a-year scholarship to Princeton University. He has played baseball and football at Aquinas and is an honor student.

Clifford Vroom of 181 Malden Street has succeeded Maryin A. Schultz as chairman of Red Jacket District, Boy Scout of America. Charles Van Duzee of 19 Acton Street has been named as commissioner.

Edward L. Miller, manager of McCurdy's Northgate Store, has been elected vice-president of the Hearing and Speech Center of Rochester. He also is a director and chairman of the budget committee of the organization, which is a Red Feather agency.

Miller is active in Greece-Council, Rochester Chamber of Commerce, serving E. L. Miller on the Board of Directors and as a member of the Chamber's Business Trends Committee.

He is a former president of the Harvard Business School Club of Rochester.

(Continued on page two)

Townpeople Acclaim Easton's Appointment to Bench

Congratulations were heaped on William G. Easton of 1550 Stone Road this week on his appointment to the Court of Claims bench.

Announcement of the long-expected appointment, which will become effective on June 1, was made by Acting Governor Malcolm Wilson. The choice had been approved by Governor Nelson A. Rockefeller before he departed on his current vacation trip.

Easton will go to Albany next week to be sworn in by the governor. The appointment is subject to confirmation by the State Senate when it convenes in January but this is expected to be a routine matter.

His term as a Court of Claims judge will run through December 31, 1967. He will receive a salary of $22,000 a year and an office expense and travel allowance.

Easton, who served for several years as attorney for the Town of Greece, will be required to give

An outdoor art exhibition, a boat show and a display of thousands of blossoming tulips will be special attractions at Northgate Plaza this weekend, highlighting the program for the annual Sun 'n Fun Festival sponsored by merchants of the mammoth Dewey Avenue shopping center.

The art show, which will get underway today and run through Saturday, and the boat show, scheduled for Saturday only, were booked by the Northgate Plaza Merchants Association, headed by R. King Denton, as free features for the enjoyment of area residents.

The tulip spectacle has been an annual mid-May attraction at the Plaza since 1954.

The tulip spectacle has been an annual sailboat show will be under sponsorship of the Braddock Bay Boat Club, of which Richard H. Woodward is commodore. Cooperating in the art exhibition are the Suburban Art Group, consisting largely of Greece residents, and the Irondequoit Art Club.

In keeping with the occasion, several of the Plaza's 32 stores and shops are offering special merchandise values.

King Denton

Memorial Day Rites Planned

Tribute to the town's departed war heroes will be paid on Memorial Day—May 30—with a parade in Ridge Road West and a ceremony at Falls Cemetery.

Parade units, including veterans organizations, fire departments, auxiliary drill teams, school pupils and Boy and Girl Scout troops, will form at 9:30 a. m. at the Town Hall.

Supervisor Gordon A. Howe and Sheriff Albert W. Skinner will place wreaths at the base of the Town Hall flagstaff in memory of the war dead. Taking part in the rites will be Mrs. Louise Wernham, commander of Greece Post, American Legion, and Robert Gilliland, Greece-Ridgecrest Post, VFW, commander.

The line of march for the procession will be from the Town Hall to the cemetery and return. William E. Hill, county vice-commander of the American Legion, will be parade marshal.

His staff will include Norman Gerhardt, commander-elect of Greece Post; Philip Brothers and Emmett Mura.

Officers Elected By Rosary Society

The Rosary Society of Our Lady of Mercy Church has elected Mrs. John Flavin of 3428 Dewey Avenue as president.

Serving with her during the coming year will be Mrs. Frank Bourcy of 210 Glenbrook Road, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Ammering, 213 Woodcroft Drive, and Mrs. Walter Burns, 32 Hampton Boulevard.

Kiwanians Announce Youth Fund Project

Members of the Northwest Kiwanis Club will take over gasoline and oil chores Sunday at Gerry Springer's Stone-Ridge Service Station, 1436 Ridge Road West, to raise funds for the "Kiwanis for Kids" Project.

Proceeds of the day's business will be donated to the Kiwanis youth fund by the station management.

Kiwanians will man the gasoline pumps from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. There will be balloons and lollypops for the youngsters.

The general committee consists of Bill Watson, "Rocky" Pilaroscia, Bill Cass, Gerald Lapple, Don Scott, Bill Sullivan, Fran Cramer, Charley Oster and Tom Pritchett.

Patricia Malak Wins Nazareth Scholarship

Patricia Ann Malak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley A. Malak of 940 Edgemere Drive, has been awarded a four-year scholarship to Nazareth Academy for outstanding work in her studies.

She will be graduated from Mother of Sorrows School next month.

Church Men Plan Outdoor Supper

The Men's Club of Greece Methodist Church will have a cookout on the church grounds tomorrow at 6:30 p. m.

After the supper officers for the coming year will be elected. Fred Stecher, club president, is chairman of the cookout.

Chosen for Boys State

Rene Durand, Charlotte High pupil, has been chosen to attend Boys State sessions at Colgate University this summer under sponsorship of Greece Post, American Legion.