Local youths arrested on shoplifting charges

PLATTSBURGH — An investigation by state police has led to the arrest of several area youths in connection with alleged shoplifting incidents at Pyramid Mall in recent weeks.

A 17-year-old Plattsburgh youth, currently not in the custody of the state police, allegedly took a $14.32 pair of shoes from Montgomery Ward on Oct. 6. The shoes were valued at $30 and were returned before the investigation began.

Another 17-year-old Plattsburgh youth was arrested by Trooper Calamsa of the state police on Oct. 7 for allegedly stealing $52 in goods from Macy's at Pyramid Mall.

A 15-year-old Peru Street boy was arrested by Trooper Pray for allegedly stealing $38 in goods from Macy's at Pyramid Mall.

A 15-year-old Peru Street boy was also involved in four different shoplifting incidents at the Pyramid Mall. This youth was caught with some of the missing merchandise, which was valued at $94.

The thefts and arrests were subsequently investigated by detectives and a number of other local law enforcement agencies.

Property transfers

Kenneth L. Miller of Plattsburgh, Richard W. and Vivian Anne Poster of Plattsburgh, property in Plattsburgh.

Robert A. Turnarne of Adirondack, property in Herkimer County.

Robert C. and Jeanette D. LaBarre of Plattsburgh, property in Herkimer County.

Gregory Fossete of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

Jeremy C. and Jeanette D. LaBarre of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

Alfred and Aline Fossette of Beekmantown, property in Warren County.

The meeting will feature Dr. Donald T. Kemmy of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

James J. Prime of New York City, property in Warren County.

Bernadette M. Major of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

Robert A. Torrance of Au Sable Forks, property in Warren County.

Henry Cummings of Herkimer County, property in Warren County.

Jocelyn R. Burns of Keeseville, property in Warren County.

The meeting will feature Dr. Donald T. Kemmy of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

The meeting will feature Dr. Donald T. Kemmy of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

ATTENTION! HOME OWNERS WITH HOT WATER HEAT

You can eliminate or drastically reduce your heating costs with the SFB 3 WOOD FIRED BOILER

- Guaranteed Energy Efficiency
- High Return on Investment
- Fully Automatic possibility
- Pays for Itself
- Easy to Install
- Quality Components
- Remote installations

For further information call MIKE TRAHAN
P.O. BOX 975
CHAZY, N.Y.
846-7093

FINGER LAKES, N.Y.

Local youths arrested on shoplifting charges

PLATTSBURGH — An investigation by state police has led to the arrest of several area youths in connection with alleged shoplifting incidents at Pyramid Mall in recent weeks.

A 17-year-old Plattsburgh youth, currently not in the custody of the state police, allegedly took a $14.32 pair of shoes from Montgomery Ward on Oct. 6. The shoes were valued at $30 and were returned before the investigation began.

Another 17-year-old Plattsburgh youth was arrested by Trooper Calamsa of the state police on Oct. 7 for allegedly stealing $52 in goods from Macy's at Pyramid Mall.

A 15-year-old Peru Street boy was arrested by Trooper Pray for allegedly stealing $38 in goods from Macy's at Pyramid Mall.

A 15-year-old Peru Street boy was also involved in four different shoplifting incidents at the Pyramid Mall. This youth was caught with some of the missing merchandise, which was valued at $94.

The thefts and arrests were subsequently investigated by detectives and a number of other local law enforcement agencies.

Property transfers

Kenneth L. Miller of Plattsburgh, Richard W. and Vivian Anne Poster of Plattsburgh, property in Plattsburgh.

Robert A. Turnarne of Adirondack, property in Herkimer County.

Robert C. and Jeanette D. LaBarre of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

Gregory Fossette of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

Jocelyn R. Burns of Keeseville, property in Warren County.

The meeting will feature Dr. Donald T. Kemmy of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

The meeting will feature Dr. Donald T. Kemmy of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

ATTENTION! HOME OWNERS WITH HOT WATER HEAT

You can eliminate or drastically reduce your heating costs with the SFB 3 WOOD FIRED BOILER

- Guaranteed Energy Efficiency
- High Return on Investment
- Fully Automatic possibility
- Pays for Itself
- Easy to Install
- Quality Components
- Remote installations

For further information call MIKE TRAHAN
P.O. BOX 975
CHAZY, N.Y.
846-7093

FINGER LAKES, N.Y.

Local youths arrested on shoplifting charges

PLATTSBURGH — An investigation by state police has led to the arrest of several area youths in connection with alleged shoplifting incidents at Pyramid Mall in recent weeks.

A 17-year-old Plattsburgh youth, currently not in the custody of the state police, allegedly took a $14.32 pair of shoes from Montgomery Ward on Oct. 6. The shoes were valued at $30 and were returned before the investigation began.

Another 17-year-old Plattsburgh youth was arrested by Trooper Calamsa of the state police on Oct. 7 for allegedly stealing $52 in goods from Macy's at Pyramid Mall.

A 15-year-old Peru Street boy was arrested by Trooper Pray for allegedly stealing $38 in goods from Macy's at Pyramid Mall.

A 15-year-old Peru Street boy was also involved in four different shoplifting incidents at the Pyramid Mall. This youth was caught with some of the missing merchandise, which was valued at $94.

The thefts and arrests were subsequently investigated by detectives and a number of other local law enforcement agencies.

Property transfers

Kenneth L. Miller of Plattsburgh, Richard W. and Vivian Anne Poster of Plattsburgh, property in Plattsburgh.

Robert A. Turnarne of Adirondack, property in Herkimer County.

Robert C. and Jeanette D. LaBarre of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

Gregory Fossette of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

Jocelyn R. Burns of Keeseville, property in Warren County.

The meeting will feature Dr. Donald T. Kemmy of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

The meeting will feature Dr. Donald T. Kemmy of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

ATTENTION! HOME OWNERS WITH HOT WATER HEAT

You can eliminate or drastically reduce your heating costs with the SFB 3 WOOD FIRED BOILER

- Guaranteed Energy Efficiency
- High Return on Investment
- Fully Automatic possibility
- Pays for Itself
- Easy to Install
- Quality Components
- Remote installations

For further information call MIKE TRAHAN
P.O. BOX 975
CHAZY, N.Y.
846-7093

FINGER LAKES, N.Y.

Local youths arrested on shoplifting charges

PLATTSBURGH — An investigation by state police has led to the arrest of several area youths in connection with alleged shoplifting incidents at Pyramid Mall in recent weeks.

A 17-year-old Plattsburgh youth, currently not in the custody of the state police, allegedly took a $14.32 pair of shoes from Montgomery Ward on Oct. 6. The shoes were valued at $30 and were returned before the investigation began.

Another 17-year-old Plattsburgh youth was arrested by Trooper Calamsa of the state police on Oct. 7 for allegedly stealing $52 in goods from Macy's at Pyramid Mall.

A 15-year-old Peru Street boy was arrested by Trooper Pray for allegedly stealing $38 in goods from Macy's at Pyramid Mall.

A 15-year-old Peru Street boy was also involved in four different shoplifting incidents at the Pyramid Mall. This youth was caught with some of the missing merchandise, which was valued at $94.

The thefts and arrests were subsequently investigated by detectives and a number of other local law enforcement agencies.

Property transfers

Kenneth L. Miller of Plattsburgh, Richard W. and Vivian Anne Poster of Plattsburgh, property in Plattsburgh.

Robert A. Turnarne of Adirondack, property in Herkimer County.

Robert C. and Jeanette D. LaBarre of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

Gregory Fossette of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

Jocelyn R. Burns of Keeseville, property in Warren County.

The meeting will feature Dr. Donald T. Kemmy of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

The meeting will feature Dr. Donald T. Kemmy of Plattsburgh, property in Warren County.

ATTENTION! HOME OWNERS WITH HOT WATER HEAT

You can eliminate or drastically reduce your heating costs with the SFB 3 WOOD FIRED BOILER

- Guaranteed Energy Efficiency
- High Return on Investment
- Fully Automatic possibility
- Pays for Itself
- Easy to Install
- Quality Components
- Remote installations

For further information call MIKE TRAHAN
P.O. BOX 975
CHAZY, N.Y.
846-7093

FINGER LAKES, N.Y.