PLATTSBURGH — More than 100 residents of the Riverside Trailer Park picketed in front of City Hall at noon Tuesday, protesting not only what they called unacceptable living conditions in the park, but also what seemed to be an unfair manner in which the city treated them.

The tenants and Mayor Carlton Rennell said they were picketing because they wanted to make sure the city doesn’t give the trailer park away five years to repair the park.

However, the park owner, Tuesday afternoon that there is no such plan.

Mayor Rennell said he had heard the complaints and that the city was working on the problems.

"We will make him fix it," Rennell said. "Absolutely." Rennell answered, adding that the city was looking to shut down the park and would make repairs on the park.
