PUBLIC RECORD

Monsignor Paul Brunet dies

TUPPER LAKE - Monsignor Paul George Brunet, 80, died Aug. 27, 1991, at Morrison Healthcare Village in Tupper Lake. He was a resident of Brooklyn since 1931. He was assigned as an assistant priest in 1931 to St. John the Baptist Church in Rochester.

He is survived by a son, Rev. Joseph C. Brunet of Tupper Lake; a daughter, Frances Brunet of Rochester; five grandchildren; and seven step-grandchildren.

Funeral services for Monsignor Brunet will be held at the St. John the Baptist Church in Rochester. Burial will be at Macedon Cemetery.

Fire damages house in Crown Point

CROWN POINT - A single-family home in Crown Point was damaged by fire on Tuesday.

The house, a two-story structure on the Old Ferry Road, is owned by Robert and Ruth May. Firefighters extinguished the blaze, but smoke and heat inside caused damage to the building's interior. The firefighters were to remain at the scene with the body of the house.

Former Chemical Bank chairman dies at 72

DARIEN, Conn. (AP) - Alfred W. Platten, a Darien resident, died Aug. 26, 1991, at St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital Center in New York, N.Y. He was 72.

Platten was chairman of the board of Chemical Bank, a unit of the Chemical Securities Group of companies.

Funeral services will be held at St. Luke's-Roosevelt Hospital Center in New York. Burial will be at Mt. Hope Cemetery in Darien.

Haberdasher Barney Pressman dies

NEW YORK (AP) - Barney Pressman, who made the west's clothing store into an upscale emporium of expensive clothes and fine gifts, died Aug. 26, 1991, at his home in New York City. He was 71.

Pressman was co-founder of Barneys New York, the luxury department store that he ran for more than 50 years. He was a key figure in the upscale fashion industry.

Pressman was born in New York City and graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1945 with the rank of major. He served as a first lieutenant in the Army during World War II.

For many years, Pressman was a member of the board of directors of Cleveland-Clinic's Critical Care Research Institute and the New York City and CPC International.

Pressman was also a co-founder and a board member of the Museum of Modern Art. He served on the board of the Museum of Modern Art from 1956 to 1964.

Funeral services will be held at St. John the Baptist Church in Crown Point.

NORTHERN UP COUNTRY NOTES

July 29, 1991

Darin and William coordinators

Amherst: A news story in today's edition of the Amherst Times mentions the coordination effort of Darin and William coordinators. If you have any information about the story, please contact the Times at 518-291-2000.