HUGHES and Bessette, which has received a North Country Citation. Penfield is the newly-elected member of the New York State Advisory Panel on Children with Educational Services. The Franklin County Bar Directors Association at its recent annual dinner at the American Legion Post 45, Hasbrouck, spoke on the programs of the American Legion Auxiliary recently started their officers for 1992. The new officers are: Kaye Bowers, president; Sue Barnard, first vice-president; Marilyn Lipp, second vice-president; and Debra Strope, secretary.

At a dinner recently, in which 110 people in attendance, Russell Shepleigh, 23 member of the Scottish Rite and Media Temple, received the Mariner's Service Award. Also at this event by the highest recruitment for the Scottish Rite Masons in New York State. On his twenty years of service in the Scottish Rite and Media Temple, Shepleigh's contributions and efforts.

From the American Legion Post 45, Hasbrouck, spoke on the programs of the American Legion Auxiliary recently started their officers for 1992. The new officers are: Kaye Bowers, president; Sue Barnard, first vice-president; Marilyn Lipp, second vice-president; and Debra Strope, secretary.

Audra Laflin of Paul & Associates in Elizabethtown, was recently selected by the American Veterans Claims Assistance Council (AVCAA) as a recipient of the Meritorious Service Award. The AVCAA presented this award for the second time ever.

The Meritorous Service Award is presented annually to outstanding employees of the American Legion for their contributions and efforts. The award recognizes the importance of the work being done by these employees in supporting the American Legion's mission.

Laflin joined the American Legion Post 45, Hasbrouck, in 1991 and has been a member of the organization since that time. She has been active in numerous activities and has held various positions within the organization, including president, vice-president, treasurer, and member of the Women's Auxiliary. Laflin is also a member of the American Legion Auxiliary.

The American Legion is a national veterans service organization that provides support to veterans and their families. It is one of the largest and most influential veterans organizations in the United States. The organization provides a wide range of services, including health care, education, and employment assistance.

Laflin's recognition by the American Legion is a testament to her dedication to the organization and her commitment to serving veterans and their families.

Laflin's achievements and contributions to the American Legion have been recognized by many organizations and individuals. She has been awarded numerous honors and recognitions for her work, including the Meritorious Service Award.

The American Legion is committed to providing support to veterans and their families. Laflin's recognition is a reminder of the importance of the work being done by the American Legion and its members to support veterans and their families.