General News

National Park Service

The House voted to allow the National Park Service to charge a $5 admission fee to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park starting in 1994 to help finance park facilities. The 238-174 vote occurred as the House passed a resolution approving the fee. Aara of Representative Robert L. Byrd, D-W.Va., praised the bill, saying it was a "necessary revenue source." The bill, S.504, was introduced by Senator Ted Kennedy, D-Mass.

Fuller Chert

Representative John Fuller, R-Ohio, visited the House on October 18 to address the need for additional military supplies. Fuller expressed concern about the military's increased spending and urged Congress to consider the needs of our armed forces.

President Clinton

President Clinton addressed the House about the need for increased funding for education and health care. He noted that the American Heritage Partnership Program (HR 5044) would provide funding for these purposes. The president's speech was met with mixed reactions, with some lawmakers applauding his proposals and others expressing concern about the cost.

Hootenanny

The House voted to allow a hootenanny on Friday, Oct. 21, at the White House. The vote was 238-174 in favor of the proposal, which would allow for a small gathering of artists and musicians to perform at the White House.
