Churches Sponsor Daily Bible School Now in Progress

Daily Vacation Bible School, for all village children of 5 to 14 years old, opened last Monday at the Baptist Church. The school, sponsored by Newark churches, will be held each week day morning from 9 to 11:30 a. m. through next Thursday, excepting Saturday.

The Rev. Nicholas Titus, pastor of the Baptist Church, is superintendent of the school, assisted by the Rev. Henry C. Haag of Emmanuel Evangelical Church. The daily program includes Bible study, worship, singing, recreation, and hand-craft work.

Following close of the school next Thursday morning, special exercises will be held that evening in the church at which accomplishments of the children will be displayed.

Teachers for the school, all volunteers, are Mrs. Albert Hendrick, Mrs. Verne Beal, Mrs. Charles Serrigson, Miss Susie Reynolds, Miss Anna Jane Reed, Miss Charlotte Witchey, Miss Ellen Dion, Miss Myrtle Barnmaker, Miss Betty Allen, and Miss Marjorie Vanderlinde.

To avoid hard-frozen pieces of fruit in fresh-fruit ice cream, crush the fruit first, then let it stand awhile with sugar before adding the fruit to the cream mixture.

A rough guide for the amount of money to spend for a rug or carpet is from 15 to 20 per cent of a living-room or dining-room budget, and from 10 to 15 per cent of a bedroom budget.
