TWIN FRAYS BOOKED BY HILLMEN HERE SUNDAY NIGHT

THE 19th HOLE

'Vandy' Scores Slam! . . .

THE triple victory and smart performance of Al Synesael on the Fourth of July made him the "man in the spotlight" for the holiday week-end. It even overshadowed what we think may be given the award for the outstanding feat of the year. This was, if you haven't heard, Clarence Vanderbrook's perfect par 72 made July 1.

"It was just one of those days", Vandy reports, "when everything worked perfectly. If I could only have them when they count more!" Playing with Fred Burger in a casual round, he achieved every golfer's dream of playing perfect par rounds, 36 and 36. He had 2 Birdies and 2 bogies each round, and the other 10 holes he shot as the scorecard calls 'em. Vandy has twice before shot rounds of 35, but never gone 18 holes in even par. Vin Roche is the only other amateur now playing here who has, and don't be surprised if either of these boys pops up in the championship finals—again.

They're Off For Title . . .

THAT championship chase for the men's crown, is now under way, following qualifying and pairings completed Saturday. Pete Bohusz is tourney medalist, with low qualifying score of 75, which is just short of phenomenal for him and consisted of rounds of 37 and 38. The 16 low qualifiers must play their first matches by next Monday, their quarter-final rounds by July 21, semi-finals by July 28, and the final 36-hole match will be staged Aug. 3 to fill the throne left vacant by Bob Macon, last year's titlist.

The pairings, as determined by a regulation chart for such events, and the qualifying scores are:

Upper Bracket—Bohusz, 75 vs. Charlie Cadey, 86; Dr. Sirkin, 80 vs. Bill Newton, 91; Vanderbrook, 79 vs. Ed Farrell, 87; Roche, 85 vs. Spence Knight, 93.

Lower Bracket—Hank Coleman, 79 vs. Dave Rolfe, 86; Lym Crothers, 81 vs. Jim Hurley, 92; Howard Wiebeld, 79 vs. Ted Beales, 90; Howard Franklin, 85 vs. Jim Wood, 94. This is an open event—no handicaps and no holes barred—and may the lucky man win. We have gone on record as favoring Coleman, but look out Hank, Dave Rolfe is a dangerous opponent to open against.

Honorable Mention . . .

NICE GOING Dept: Big drops in handicaps the past week, resulting from greatly improved playing, were registered by Bob Brown, Ted Beales, Bohusz, Roche, Synesael, and Vanderbrook. Brown, after nursing a sprained ankle for a month, has been playing nearly every day

'Kemp' Bloomer in Van of Robin Tars, Stuart Tops Snipes

Kempy Bloomer, youthful sailor who only this year started skippering a Robin yacht, now leads the Robin fleet of Sodus Bay Yacht Club after four of the 13 races for the club championship have been run off. He won once and finished second in another of three contests held over the holiday week-end to give him a leading margin.

In the Old Timers' Race staged the Fourth, Leslie Freeman of New York City, a former crack sailor on Sodus Bay, walked off with the annual trophy test, piloting Kemp Bloomer's Robin over the line first. John Hayden, last year's victor, was second in Bill Croucher's boat, followed by Bill Taylor, Ross Bush, and Levan Barnes.

The Snipe division, which blossomed out with a 12-boat fleet last week, saw "Chip" Stuart capture four races in a row to clinch the July series and take a big lead toward defending his 1940 Snipe crown. Besides the 12 Snipes and 14 Robins in the water over the holiday, Commodore Croucher reports about 60 other larger craft moored in the Bay, giving the place the looks of a metropolitan port.

Robin race results were as follows: Friday—1, Bill Croucher; 2, Terry Paton; Saturday—1, Kemp Bloomer; 2, Bill Croucher; 3, Red Marsh; Sunday—1, Bill Croucher; 2, Kemp Bloomer; 3, Gordy Chapman. Commodore Croucher's twin win and a second made up for an opening zero and brought him up to fourth in the championship standings.

These standings show Kemp Bloomer with 85 per cent, Terry Paton with 75, defending champ Tim Croucher with 74, and the Commodore with 73. The Handicap class attempted a complicated maneuver out in the lake as part of "guest day", but the nature or results have not been determined by many who sailed.

NORTHMEN, WEBSTER ON LOCAL CARD

A double-header will be staged by State School Men's Club this Sunday night at Colburn Park, according to Manager Ken Witt. In the first encounter at 7 the locals, leaders in the Lakeshore League, will meet Webster, their runners-up in that loop, while in the nightcap under lights they will clash with the St. Lawrence Hurons of Northern New York.

The Hillmen captured their 19th victory in 24 starts last Sunday afternoon at Hornell, trouncing the Hornell Merchants 6-2. Eddie Davis, regular Webster pitcher, twirled his triumph and had a 2-hitter until the 7th, when 2 more hits were chalked up by the losers. He also hurled the 10-7 Men's Club win over Watertown two weeks ago and is viewed as a coming mound sensation and Manager Witt is attempting to sign him for the district tourney.

Davis will chuck for Webster in the Lakeshore tilt Sunday evening, and if Webster nips the locals they will go into a tie for first with Men's Club. Hillmen will use either Charlie Priebe or Joe DeAngelis as hurlers in this fray.

In the second tussle the Hurons will furnish sprightly opposition for the Newarkers, boasting one of the best flippers in the Northern Tier. He is "Tiny" Thrall, speedballer formerly of Buffalo. The team is sponsored by a cement firm which draws players from among its employees all along the St. Lawrence River and upper Adirondacks.

The cement tossers are a husky lot and pulverize the ball at a team average of .421, which augurs no good for the Men's Club twirler of the evening—either Charlie Reese or "Hank" Hudson. The team plays in the Carthage city league and is expected to cop the Carthage district tournament starting July 20.

PLAY AND BY-PLAY

By DON BIRD

Witt Gets Big Job . . .

STATE Softball Commissioner Ross (Tex) Erwin of Rochester has appointed Ken Witt, State School softball major domo, as commissioner of a new district he (Erwin) has set up for the annual tourney to pick a state title contender. Witt was formerly named Wayne District commish, but under the new setup will conduct the tourney for the Wayne-Monroe-Ontario district, in which any teams from those counties, outside Rochester, will compete.

He has named Monday, Aug. 11, as the starting date for this district playoff, which is expected to draw 16 teams from throughout these three counties. Clubs which have signified a desire to enter are Geneva Canoes, Fairport GOP, Newark Jackson & Perkins, Newark Men's Club, Newark Bilottas, Lyons Santellis, Williamson Orphix, Palmyra Garlocks, Rose Firemen, and Clyde Recreations. Witt says he will stage the tourney at either the Rose or Williamson lighted parks.

Reason it will not be held in Newark is that admissions cannot be charged here and Witt says he is not willing to risk going in the hole for playoff expenses under this setup. Rose and Williamson have private fields where fans may be charged. This would be a nice event for Newark to have, but until some arrangement is made whereby admissions can be collected neither this nor other big-time softball contests can be staged—as we have pointed out several times previously. In fact the local Men's Club has had such poor luck with passing the hat that, unless they take in enough to cover expenses at their twin bill here Sunday they'll move their exhibition games to the Rose field, says Pat Donahue, booking manager.

We think this could be remedied by a resolution of the village board allowing rental of the field and charging of admissions (as is done with the old gym). It's almost a necessity now to save the Class A game from leaving town entirely!

MOST POPULAR Dept.: Hank Hudson, chunky Rochester pitcher whom we introduced briefly last week, is the current object of bids from three local teams, Bilottas, J&P, and Men's Club, for his services in the coming district tourney . . . Johnny Frantz, genial heavyweight hurler, is gaining renown as the outstanding Minor League flipper after turning in a gruelling 16-inning mound job for the Center Bears last week. 7-inning and 9-inning victories the same night, and bashing out 5 hits in 9 times up, as well as

All-Stars Trip Bloomers, Bears Win 2 in Minor Wheel

Leaders of the Minor Softball League here, Bloomers, found a superior for the first time in five weeks when they bowed to the All-Stars, pick of the rest of the league, in a sizzling battle Tuesday, 7-6, for their third defeat of the season. It was a non-loop tilt, however, and does not effect the Bloomer leadership in the circuit.

Something that may effect it, however, is a double win by the Center Bears last Wednesday over the Center Cubs in a pair of wild-scoring frays, 13-8 and 23-13. While only one game was scheduled, the two teams decided to play a twilight-light affair and, as a result, the Bears moved into second place ahead of Men's Club II. Featuring this twin victory was hefty Johnny Frantz, hard-working Bears twirler, who went 16 consecutive innings on the mound for his double triumph and clouted 5 hits in 9 trips to earn widespread praise.

Two Minor circuit tilts are on tap this week, both tomorrow night. At 6:30 the Bears and Men's Club II meet on the State School field, and at 9 o'clock Cubs and Bloomers tangle.

The All-Stars outlasted Bloomers in a windy duel that brought forth a good pitching contest between Frantz and Win Fishbaugh and some nice fielding plays. Kenny Huebeler's 2 doubles and Frantz's pair of singles led the All-Star attack, but it was Vin Velesenti who broke up the game in the 7th with a single to send Dave Farrington home with the tally that broke a 6-6 tie.

Previously Bloomers had forged ahead on the good hitting of Larry Valmore, who had a two-bagger and single in 3 trips, and singles by Fishbaugh and Dick Lunay. Pete Simonse turned in several snappy plays for Bloomers at shortstop, as did Al Bedette at second, while best All-Star fielding was done by Velesenti in left, Farrington at third, Free Tack at short, and Lev Lancaster in center.

Not so popular is John Fusco, Avon Cards manager, who cancelled his tilt with Men's Club here Sunday one hour before game time. Hillmen had previously played at Avon on a home-and-home agreement.

Lad Hooks Mammoth 6¼-lb. Walleyed Pike

One of the prize fish catches of this or any year and now a decided leader in its division of the Courier-Gazette Fishing Contest is a 6¼-pound Walleyed Pike caught Monday by Thomas M. Corkhill, 7-year old son of Mr and Mrs William Corkhill, Vienna Rd., Newark RD 1.

The beauty was hooked by the lad in the Canal Widewaters on a "pepper" spinner and bamboo pole. It measured 26 inches and tipped the scales at 6 pounds, 4 ounces. Best previous entry was a 3½-pound Walleye by Frank Wiser. No entries of Black Bass have yet been received and they are reported "scarce as hen's teeth".

GOLF MATCH HERE DRAWS N. Y. CHAMP

Fresh from her latest triumph as winner of the Lake Placid Women's Invitation Golf Tourney last week, Miss Marjorie Harrison, New York State Women's Golf Champion, will come here next week to play in an interesting 18-hole exhibition match over Newark Country Club links Sunday afternoon, July 20. Miss Harrison will be leader of a quartet of distinguished women golfers in the match, which includes Betsy and Janet MacLeod of Buffalo and Agnes Williams of Newark.

So much interest has been evidenced generally in this match since its announcement, that Earl R. Stott, local club president, has issued an invitation to the general public to follow these top-flight ladies in their display over the fairways here. Pairings for the contest have not yet been announced, but it is certain that some beautiful golf will be shown by these young ladies, all under 25 years of age and recognized throughout the state for their abilities.

Miss Harrison, a tall and graceful champion, won the state women's crown last year at Troy. Twice she broke the Troy Country Club course record, shooting a 77 in a warm-up round and 75 in match competition. All her tourney scores were below 80 and observers and opponents marveled at her powerful drives off the tee. Although she has never competed in a national contest, she has won several other large metropolitan district events and is rated as one of the leading linkswomen in the nation.

A student at Syracuse University, she is being viewed at 21 as another possible "Patty Berg" or "Helen Hicks", and is under the teutelage of her father, Neal Harrison, golf pro at Indole Golf Club, Ausable Forks, N. Y. Her latest victory last week at Lake Placid was won by beating Virginia Guilfoil, noted golfer at Syracuse.

AL SYNESAEL

Synesael Captures July 4th Platter, Two Other Prizes

Seventeenth annual tourney for the Commercial Building Platter, held each July 4, was captured last Friday for the first time by Al Synesael, Elks' exalted ruler, as some 25 men toured the Country Club links in the contest. Merrill Rightmyer, 1940 winner, did not defend his trophy.

Synesael, a 90's golfer, carded a gross 88, which a 24 handicap brought down to low net of 64. He thus broke 90 for the first time in his life and won 3 balls and a diploma, 3 more balls in the sweepstakes, and lowered his handicap 2 strokes. In fact, Al was No. 1 player around the club over the holiday week-end.

The victor had rounds of 43 and 45 for his score, which entitles him to a space on the silver platter which I osted for possession of a low net winner three successive years.

Complete list of platter victors the past 17 years is: 1925—Bill Robeson, 1926 — George Richmond, 1927—Herb Jackson, 1928—Bill Buck, 1929—Stuart Hallagan, 1930—Buck, 1931—Stuart Hallagan, 1932—Phil Emerson, 1933—Rev. A. Hyde, 1934—H. J. Wildhack, 1935—Edwin Hallagan, 1936 and 37—Howard Franklin, 1938—Ted Beales, 1939—Leon Tobey, 1940—Merrill Rightmyer, and 1941—Synesael.

In the sweepstakes run along with the July 4 tourney Vin Roche was second with a sparkling score of 70-10-65. He had a par 36 round and 39. Spence Knight's 85-19-66 was third, and a tie for fourth included Larry Ely's 90-23-67 and Ed Farrell's 87-20-67. Bob Hall had 85-17-68 for fifth. In the Blind Bogey test Leon Tobey hit 90-20-77 to win.

HIRES PLAY FOR 6TH IN ROW TONITE

Undefeated in their first five games this season, Bilotta's Hires will face the strong East Rochester Perintons, leaders of the Monroe County Softball League, here tonight under Colburn Park arcs. The locals, sparked by the 2-hit hurling of Hank Hudson, turned back Lyons All-Stars, last year's district champs, by 4-0 here last Thursday.

Hudson struck out 11 Lyons batters and, after Joe Costello's scratch single in the first, allowed only one man to reach first until the 7th, and that on a walk.

It was McMillin who paced the Hires attack, socking two doubles in three times up and scoring 3 of the 4 Newark tallies. Hires nicked Bill Haessig for 6 hits. Hudson will again be on the mound opposing the East Rochester-Fairport combination tonight in the tilt starting at 9 o'clock.

GARLOCKS BOW TO J&P

"Hank" Hudson won a pitching duel over Milt Glende here Tuesday night and sparked Jackson & Perkins to a narrow 6-5 victory from Palmyra Garlocks. J&P scored 4 off Red Payne in the first, then nicked Glende for 7 hits and 2 runs, while Garlocks garnered 5 hits and runs off Hudson.

Critelli Holds Top In Major Hit Parade

Joe Critelli, Merchants' flipper, continues to pace the Major Softball League in hitting, according to averages compiled up to date. Although slipping from his half-way mark of .567, Joe is still well ahead of the field at .467, with 7 hits in 8 games.

He is followed closely by Chet Pelis, Men's Club first baseman, at .438 and Charlie Priebe, Elks hurler and manager, at .411. Averages of the 15 leading hitters in the loop are:

Critelli, Merchants	8	15		.467
Pelis, Men's Club	8	16	7	.438
C. Priebe, Elks	8	18	8	.444
