Grand larceny arrest

A Newark man was arrested Tuesday in connection with theft of $16,000, reported by Palmyra Village Police. The larceny was charged with third-degree theft, a misdemeanor.

Police: Chief Richard Bogan said that on October 27, a man, who was staying in the Palmyra Hotel, reported that his shop and storage area of Carpet One Furniture, 301 Main St., were burglarized.

According to Chief Bogan, the police investigation resulted in the arrest of an 18-year-old male suspect. The suspect was charged with burglary.
