This is a common sight any time of the year when there's no snow. But on the last day of School, June 21, kids on bikes were everywhere. Most middle schoolers won't wear bike helmets, though.

The program is free and open to the public. encouraged to bring their own meters to compare or to address any questions they may have.

This two-hour course (July 26, 4-6 p.m.) is required for individuals applying for new certification, including those provided in person. Teacher assistants applying for the Continuing Teacher Assistant or special

Newark firemen were called to the old mill at Mud Mills on July 3, a false alarm on July 4 at Caves Lumber Co., and a false trip at Caves Lumber Co. smoke detector, and a false trip at Caves Lumber Co.

The Wayne-Finger lakes BOCES will provide required training for the Detection and Reporting of Child Abuse.

Individuals interested in registering for the program should call the Wayne-Finger lakes BOCES at 585-335-1121. Prior notification is required.

The course takes place July 22, 2-4 p.m. It will be held at Burgundy Park in Palmyra, at noon on July 23; at the Northview Community Center in Palmyra, at noon on July 24; and at the Northview Community Center in Palmyra, at noon on July 25.

Accreditation renewed for CSH&Co bank blood

The blood bank at Clifton Springs Hospital & Clinic has been granted renewed accreditation by the American Association of Blood Banks (AABB). Peter Lee, M.D., is the director of laboratory services at the hospital.

The AABB accreditation for the blood bank is valid for three years.

Newark firemen called to Mud Mills

Newark firemen responded to a brush fire on Stebbins Road near the Mud Mill on July 3, a false alarm on July 4 at Caves Lumber Co., and a false trip at Caves Lumber Co.

The Wayne-Finger lakes BOCES will provide required training for the Detection and Reporting of Child Abuse.

Individuals interested in registering for the program should call the Wayne-Finger lakes BOCES at 585-335-1121. Prior notification is required.

The course takes place July 22, 2-4 p.m. It will be held at Burgundy Park in Palmyra, at noon on July 23; at the Northview Community Center in Palmyra, at noon on July 24; and at the Northview Community Center in Palmyra, at noon on July 25.