

You Get What You Give

Most of the joy of life comes from the way others treat you and from their feelings towards you. You get what you give in this world. Reaction is equal to action. The best part of any business achievement is the kindly feeling it has created in others. Through the kindly feelings it has created among those having dealings with the Geneva Trust Company of this city this progressive institution has built up a surprisingly large list of depositors.

State Road Work Will Be Resumed

It is now assumed that the road building program in New York state will be resumed in 1921, according to information from state highway officials. Test contracts were advertised and the range of bids received indicates that the work can be done within reasonable cost limits. Roads will be adapted more and more to the increasing motor truck traffic. Asphalt surfacing is in considerable favor, it is said, because of the resilient resistance it offers to the pounding of heavy loads.

Dr. W. D. Morton has been given a place in the Hall of Fame on the ground that he was the discoverer of ether as an anesthetic. Authorities of that medical school the University of Pennsylvania claim that Dr. Crawford W. Long of Georgia, a graduate of the school in 1828, was the discoverer and that he used ether as an anesthetic at least two years before Dr. Morton used it in Boston. MANY GENEVANS WILL ATTEND

Teachers of City Are Planning To Go to Rochester for Big State Meeting

Many of the teachers of the city are planning to attend the 75th annual meeting of the New York State Teachers' Association, which will be held next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at Rochester. A number of the teachers are planning to attend the convention, but owing to the fact that it will be held at Rochester this year a larger number than usual is planning to attend. The day sessions will be held at Convention Hall and the Monday and Tuesday evening sessions will be at the armory.
Chief interest of the general public undoubtedly will center in "Rochester Night," which will be observed at Rochester State Armory Tuesday evening, with a special programme of music by the Rochester High School Band and Orchestra and an address by Rev. Dr. Frank Wakeley Gussulius, president of the Armour Institute of Technology at Chicago and one of the nation's conspicuous educators. His topic will be "The Education of the American" and it is promised that he will bring a message of vital and timely import to everyone who has the welfare of children and the betterment of educational standards and facilities at heart.
Dr. Gussulius has been at the head of the world-famous Armour Institute for the past 27 years, has been a lecturer both at the Unive city of Chicago and the Yale Theological Seminary, and was for a number of years pastor of Central Church, which met in the Auditorium at Chicago. He is a prolific writer of verse, and his philosophical and devotional writings are internationally known. He is also famous as a biographical writer and essayist, and as a writer and lecturer on art. His published works are numerous, among the most important being "The Man of Galile" and "Paths to Power."
All sessions of the convention and the public meetings will be presided over by Judson S. Wright of Falconer, president of the association. The House of Delegates, which is the official body of the association, will meet in the Common Council Chamber in City Hall.

SAW MIRAGE ON SIDEWALK

College Professor Records Interesting Observation He Made on the Streets of a City.

A curious case of sidewalk mirage was described by Prof. F. W. McNair of Michigan College of Mining, Prof. McNair wrote in Science:
"I was walking eastward on a cement sidewalk on a street running nearly east and west, and moving up a moderate grade which joins a nearly level stretch of walk. On reaching a point which brought my eye slightly above the level portion, and at the same time the level stretch would have been seen in its entire length, but much foreshortened, I observed instead what appeared to be a stretch of clear dark water covering the entire width of the walk and brilliantly reflecting moving persons and other objects in sight beyond it.
"The sky was clear, the air cool, the sun high. It was about 3 o'clock p. m., local time. There was a moderate breeze. The angle of observation was very small, probably not above three degrees. A step or two either east or west, and the water was gone, but within the proper limits, the illusion was definite and continuing. The weather bureau report for the day indicated that approximately 30 feet above the spot where the mirage was observed the air temperature was about 60 degrees F., and the humidity about 63 percent."
The resemblance between conditions here described and those which produce the mirage on the plains is obvious.
There are about 1,200 diseases which afflict mankind.
